Parish Pastoral Council Report

At the regular meeting recently, two new members, Marie Shanahan and Lin Bowers, attended representing Ballan. They were welcomed by Dan Toohey who also tendered his resignation from the PPC leaving a vacancy on the PPFC for a Springbank representative. Dan will take on a position on the Parish Finance Committee. In leaving, Dan wished to convey on behalf of the Council his sincere thanks and best wishes to Christine Hall who has retired as secretary due to ill health. The PPC also extends their thanks and appreciation to Dan for his work as Chair. Nominations for positions were declared. Mick Winter accepted the position of Chair and Lin Bowers was appointed Secretary. Discussion regarding the appointment of Fr Shane and the flow on effects to the parish of Gordon took place. We wait to hear from Bishop Paul in due course what and how our future will be. Regarding the appointment of Fr Shane and his ordination as Bishop of Sandhurst, plans were discussed as to hiring a bus for parishioners who would like to attend. More details will follow, so watch this space. The next meeting of the PPC will be Monday October 7. Please forward any agenda items to the secretary by Monday, September 30. If you have any queries, please contact any members of the PPC.

Plenary Council – National Themes for Discernment Announced

The six National Themes for Discernment invite people to reflect, to pray and to consider how God is calling the People of God to be a Christ-centred Church in Australia that is:

1. Missionary and Evangelising
2. Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal
3. Prayerful and Eucharistic
4. Humble, Healing and Merciful
5. A Joyful, Hope-Filled and Servant Community
6. Open to conversion, Renewal and Reform

The discernment process will involve establishing working groups for each National Theme. People in faith communities across Australia will be called to participate locally in their own communal Listening and Discernment encounters.

Plenary Council: Listening & Dialogue Stage Final Report

Annual Appeal for Sick and Retired Priests

The Ballarat Clergy Support Fund will conduct its annual appeal this weekend. Fifteen retired priests are currently supported by this Fund. Some live privately, some are retired in units in Ballarat or elsewhere, others live in supported accommodation. The funding required for these commitments is ongoing. Thanks to your generosity, this collection has raised nearly $1.9 million since its inception in 1991, including nearly $47,000 last year. Along with the priests' own contribution of approximately $33,000 per year, this annual collection has allowed the Fund to continue to support our sick and retired clergy. Contributions over $2 are tax-deductible.
