The sacraments of Confirmation and First Eucharist will take place on the third Sunday in July 19/7/2020 at the 9am Mass.

Plenary council Humble, Healing and Merciful meet early in November when 18 members of the parish discussed this theme.

- The need for all members of the catholic community to understand their role and the role of others requires us to be accepting of all,
- to listen to them and accept differing views,
- to be helpful in a wide range of ways and share the helping with others particularly non church attendees as well as other church's groups, non Christians and non believers ,
- to work with other parishes and get help from Diocese,
- be prayerful,
- show mercy without judgement and forgive from the heart,
- be patient and keep trying,
- we need to work with the young and help in training them,
- the church should be open at all time to all,
- parishes are an equal partnership of all the people which includes the clergy.
