Sunday of the Word of God (Third Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Saturday 25th January and Sunday 26th January 2020

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

The Lord is my light and my help;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
before whom shall I shrink?

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
for this I long.

to live in the house of the Lord,
all the days of my life,
to savour the sweetness of the Lord,
to behold his temple.

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness
in the land of the living.

Hope in him, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord!

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News
of the kingdom
and healed all who were sick.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

PRAYERS FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

PRAYER FOR AUSTRALIA

Eternal God, in wisdom and love
you created our earth
to sustain us and give us life.
We turn to you now in faith, hope and love, asking you to look with favour on our fire-ravaged and
drought-stricken land,
on our displaced and starving animals,
on our failing crops and on our
burning forests, farms and towns.
Strengthen, sustain and give new heart to our farmers and to all who are affected by drought;
be with those who support them.
Give strength and comfort to the victims
of fire: those who have lost family,
friends, property and stock.
Protect our volunteer firefighters
and all members of essential services.
In your loving providence, send abundant rain to quench the fires
and restore our parched earth.
Father of all compassion, hear our prayer through Jesus Christ your Son,
in whom the promise of new life
has dawned, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life: renew your faithful people;
renew the face of the earth.
Holy Mary, Lady of the Southern Cross,
Help of Christians: pray for us.
St Mary of the Cross: pray for us.

BLESSED CANDLES NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday, 2nd February, is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, which concludes the forty days of Christmas. This feast, also called Candlemas, includes a traditional blessing of candles, which will be incorporated into Sunday's Mass. You can bring your own candles, or buy one or more of the beeswax candles the parish has acquired for the feast.

INSTITUTING THE SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD

From Aperuit Illis, an Apostolic Letter issued “Motu Proprio” (on the pope’s personal initiative)

“He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.” (Lk 24:45) This was one of the final acts of the risen Lord before his Ascension. To them, amid their fear and bewilderment, he unveiled the meaning of the Paschal Mystery: in accordance with the Father’s eternal plan he had to suffer and rise from the dead, in order to bring repentance and the forgiveness of sins. He then promised to send the Holy Spirit, who would give them strength to be his witnesses.

The relationship between the Risen Lord, the community of believers and Sacred Scripture is essential to our identity as Christians. Without the Lord who opens our minds to them, it is impossible to understand the Scriptures in depth. Yet the contrary is equally true: without the Scriptures, the events of the mission of Jesus and of his Church in this world would remain incomprehensible. Hence, St Jerome could rightly claim: “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.”

At the conclusion of the Jubilee of Mercy, I proposed a Sunday given over entirely to the word of God, so as to appreciate the inexhaustible riches contained in that constant dialogue between the Lord and his people.

Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world. I am reminded of the teaching of St Ephrem: “Who can understand, Lord, all the richness of your words? More eludes us than ever we understand. We are like the thirsty drinking from a fountain. Your word has as many aspects as the perspectives of those who study it. The Lord has coloured his word with diverse beauties, so that those who study it can contemplate what stirs them. He has hidden in his word treasures, so that each of us may find a richness in what we contemplate.”

It is fitting that our lives be constantly marked by this decisive relationship with the living word that the Lord never tires of speaking to his Bride, that she may grow in love and faithfulness. Consequently I hereby declare the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the word of God. May this Sunday help us all grow in religious and intimate familiarity with the Scriptures. For as the sacred author taught of old: “This word is very near to you: it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.” (Dt 30:14)
