RESPONSORIAL PSALM

*R/. A light rises in the darkness
for the upright*

He is a light in the darkness for the upright:

he is generous, merciful and just.

The good man takes pity and lends,
he conducts his affairs with honour.

The just man will never waver:

he will be remembered for ever.

He has no fear of evil news;
with a firm heart he trusts in the Lord.

R/.

With a steadfast heart he will not fear;
open-handed, he gives to the poor;

his justice stands firm for ever.

His head will be raised in glory.

PRAYER FOR AUSTRALIA

Eternal God, in wisdom and love
you created our earth
to sustain us and give us life.
We turn to you now in faith, hope and love, asking you to look with favour on our fire-ravaged and
drought-stricken land,
on our displaced and starving animals,
on our failing crops and on our
burning forests, farms and towns.
Strengthen, sustain and give new heart to our farmers and to all who are affected by drought;
be with those who support them.
Give strength and comfort to the victims
of fire: those who have lost family,
friends, property and stock.
Protect our volunteer firefighters
and all members of essential services.
In your loving providence, send abundant rain to quench the fires
and restore our parched earth.
Father of all compassion, hear our prayer through Jesus Christ your Son,
in whom the promise of new life
has dawned, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life: renew your faithful people;
renew the face of the earth.
Holy Mary, Lady of the Southern Cross,
Help of Christians: pray for us.
St Mary of the Cross: pray for us.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ST JOSEPH

*His sorrow when he saw Jesus born in poverty;
his joy when the angels announce Jesus' birth.*

INTRODUCTORY PRAYER

O most blessed patriarch, glorious Saint Joseph, who were chosen to be the foster father of the Word made flesh, your sorrow at seeing the child Jesus born in such poverty was suddenly changed into heavenly exultation when you heard the angelic hymn and beheld the glories of that resplendent night. By this sorrow and this joy, we implore you to obtain for us the grace to pass over from life's pathway to hear angelic songs of praise and to rejoice in the shining splendor of celestial glory.

GOSPEL READING (Lk 2:1 - 20)

Shepherds were out in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. The angel said to them, "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased!"

When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." And they went with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they saw it they made known the saying which had been told them concerning this child; and all who heard it wondered at what the shepherds told them. But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.
