St Mary's Noticesheet

St Mary's Colac is a community of believers, who strive to bring Christ's good news to the people of Colac and district. Through service, caring and love we aim to create an environment of respect and understanding in which every one can grow. We acknowledge the Gulidjan, people, the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years.

LET'S GATHER AND PRAY TOGETHER

Lord, You once told us,

'Just as you did it to one of the least of these, who are members of my family, you did it to me.

'May our eyes be opened to the hungry, thirsty, naked, sick and imprisoned. May our minds be freed from the bounds of self-interest, fear and prejudice.

May our hearts be moved to recognise and respond to the needs of your people. May we be open to the fruits of your Spirit, so that our thoughts, words and actions can be infused with love, peace, compassion and selflessness. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(Prayed this week at Our Leadership Meeting and Finance Committee Meeting).

*Next Plenary Council Meeting:

Tuesday 25th Feb- after 5pm Mass: Topic "A Church: Missionary & Evangelising."

Message for the XXVIII World Day of the Sick

Tuesday 11 February 2020

Dear brothers and sisters,

Jesus' words, "Come to me, all you who labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Mt 11:28) point to the mysterious path of grace that is revealed to the simple and gives new strength to those who are weary and tired. These words of Christ express the solidarity of the Son of Man with all those who are hurt and afflicted. How many people suffer in both body and soul! Jesus urges everyone to draw near to him – "Come to me!" – and he promises them comfort and repose. On this XXVIII World Day of the Sick, Jesus repeats these words to the sick, the oppressed, and the poor. For they realize that they depend entirely on God and, beneath the burden of their trials, stand in need of his healing. Jesus does not make demands of those who endure situations of frailty, suffering and weakness, but offers his mercy and his comforting presence. He looks upon a wounded humanity with eyes that gaze into the heart of each person. That gaze is not one of indifference; rather, it embraces people in their entirety, each person in his or her health condition, discarding no one, but rather inviting everyone to share in his life and to experience his tender love. I offer heartfelt thanks to all those volunteers who serve the sick, often compensating for structural shortcomings, while reflecting the image of Christ, the Good Samaritan, by their acts of tender love and closeness.

To the Blessed Virgin Mary, Health of the Sick, I entrust all those who bear the burden of illness, along with their families and all healthcare workers. With the assurance of a remembrance in my prayers, I cordially impart my Apostolic Blessing.

St Valentine's Day, we celebrate the patron saint of romantic love and happy marriages.

What is a commitment in marriage?

Likewise, commitment isn't just a pledge made on your wedding day and forgotten. It's a daily practice of caring and communication, sharing and sacrifice. It is about intentionally working together and relating as a couple.

Of course, commitment is more than just being happy and comfortable in your relationship and wanting it to continue. It's easy to commit to a relationship when things are going well. It's when things aren't going very well when commitment kicks in. Dealing with conflict is uncomfortable, but it's important we don't sweep problems under the rug or shut down emotionally. Listen actively to what your partner is saying and be willing to compromise. Focus on the issue at hand, rather than attacking your partner. Even when you're angry, find ways to stay connected to one another. Instead of becoming defensive or hurt, make sure each conflict is coloured by respect and even little signs of affection.

Deal with an issue quickly, solve the problem and let it go. Forgive for good.

We need to build a genuine acceptance of ourselves and our partners, blemishes and all. No one is perfect, and everyone is different.

THE BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP MEETINGS: The Bereavement Support group offers an opportunity for people who have experienced the death of a loved one, be it a partner, parent, friend or work colleague to access some additional support. The group meets either at the Neighbourhood House or at a cafe on the first or third Monday of the month. The Neighbourhood House meetings include a short presentation aimed at helping people explore their emotions and concerns around grief and bereavement, in an informal and confidential way. The next meeting is the social group at Café Nu Deli at 2.00pm on the 17th of February. This will be followed by the group meeting at The Neighbourhood House at 2.00pm on the 2nd of March.
