St Peter's Parish Daylesford, welcomes the Pilkington Families today as they celebrate their Family Reunion. The clan began in 1880 when John Pilkington was born in Eganstown. He went onto marry Ellen Cuneen & raised 7 children at Eganstown. John & Ellen & many of their family are buried at St Francis Xavier Chapel & Cemetery at Eganstown. Many of their descendants- Cusack, Pilkington, Paton, Kerlin & O'Meara families are here today at mass. We welcome and pray for a wonderful day for all involved.

The National Coordinating Team
of the Passionist Family Group Movement
congratulates
St Peter's Parish, Daylesford
as it celebrates 25 years
of Family Groups in February, 2020

The Team acknowledges and thanks, especially, coordinators
Sandra Whiffin & Hilary Cummings
for their commitment to and care of the Family Group members at St Peter's over many years.

Jesus called people to love one another and that's what the Family Group people at Daylesford have been doing for 25 years.

Sandra Whiffin
Derry, MA 2020
on behalf of the PFGM NCT

Congratulations to St Peter's Parish as it celebrates 25 years of Family Groups. The Passionist Family Group sent a certificate during the week to acknowledge the effort, care & commitment of the Family Group Members over the years. Special mention was made to coordinators Sandra Whiffin & Hilary Cummings. The certificate is now framed & hanging in the Parish Centre. Well done to all families involved.

St Augustine's Parish Meeting Reminder– Sunday 8th March after mass a meeting will be held at St. Augustine's.

St Peter's Pastoral Leadership & Finance Meeting– Copies of the minutes taken from the meeting are available down the back of the Church.
