12 April 2020 ~ Easter Sunday (A)

Focus on the Scriptures

Easter invites us to celebrate life in its fullest sense. It is anything but easy to celebrate life, however, when tens of thousands in the Earth community are facing death, when hundreds of thousands are ill and countless others are struggling to put food on their tables. Resurrection faith calls us to be fearless in our support of those most deeply affected.

A faith-filled man and two faith-filled women prepare Jesus for burial. These three people are fearless in the face of possible reprisals for their support of a "political criminal". Joseph of Arimathea cares for Jesus out of his personal wealth, providing a clean linen cloth and his own newly rock-carved tomb. With his own hands, he performs the burial ritual, lays Jesus' body in the tomb, and rolls the stone into place. The women disciples who witness the closing of the tomb are both named Mary. One is from Magdala, centre of a fish-salting industry in Galilee and the other is the mother of two male disciples. These women have contributed their goods and services to Jesus on the journey from Galilee to Jerusalem.

The women set out at dawn "to see the tomb" This seems strange until we realise that they are functioning as witnesses, this time to the dramatic opening of the tomb and the appearance of God's interpretive messenger. "Seeing" is a metaphor for insight. In the earthquake phenomenon and the allusion to lightning, there are echoes of other great moments of God's appearing to Israel, such as the encounter with Moses and the giving of the Law on Mt Sinai. The two Marys are the first to learn the news of Jesus' resurrection and the first commissioned to proclaim it. The women "see" the place where he was laid. They obey the angel's command not to be afraid but to go quickly to inform the scattered disciples that the resurrected Jesus has gone before them to Galilee, the place of mission, where they too will "see" him. Resurrection life energises these faith-filled women disciples/apostles and negates the death-dealing power of the Roman Empire. Ironically, the Roman tomb guards become "as though dead".

As the women hurry away from the tomb, Jesus comes to meet them on the path or the road. He addresses them with a familiar greeting of joy, Chairete. This is the first appearance of the resurrected One and it draws from the women a profoundly reverential response: taking hold of him, they fall down in worship. Jesus reiterates the commission already delivered by the angel: not to be afraid and to let the men know what has happened. The male disciples will later be commissioned on the mountain top (Matthew 28:16-20). All are commissioned, first the women, then the men. Those "on the mountain top" must not succumb to the temptation of remaining there. They must join those on the road or the path in fearlessly bringing life to Earth's afflicted.

Easter This will be an Easter as we have never known it. We come to this holiest of weeks in the Church year unable to gather as a community to celebrate, fortunately there are many resources being provided to assist us with prayer in our families or on our own and viewing Masses on line and on the television—see links below. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

Channel 7 to broadcast St Mary's Cathedral Easter services Catholics around Australia will be able to watch Easter services live on national television from St Mary's Cathedral in Sydney. In a 7News special, the top-rating network will stream The Lord's Passion at 3pm on Good Friday and Easter Sunday Mass from 10.30am across the country on Channel 7 and on Prime 7 in regional areas, and live-streamed on 7plus. Both liturgies will be broadcast commercial free and in their entirety. Archbishop Anthony Fisher OP welcomed the partnership, saying he was grateful to the network for recognising the importance to Catholics in the commemoration of Good Friday and the celebration of Easter Sunday Mass. Those wanting to view the liturgies online can visit <https://7plus.com.au/> online.

Baptisms unfortunately we are unable to proceed with any Baptisms we had booked in until further notice. Please also note that the Baptism preparations sessions have also been cancelled.

Stewardship Envelopes In this unchartered world of COVID—19 Pandemic it is most uncertain when Places of Worship will reopen to the public for Liturgical celebrations. Should you wish to maintain your contributions you are most welcome hand your envelopes into the office during office hours. Alternatively if you are comfortable with Internet Banking we can provide you with the appropriate bank account details for contributions to be made in this way. Your generous contribution to the ongoing needs of the Parish at this difficult time is greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Good Friday Collection Pope Francis has approved the proposal that the Collection for the Holy Land, for the year 2020, take place on Sunday, 13 September, near the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

Staying Connected Now that Masses and all gatherings at the parish have been suspended, we need to look at other ways of keeping in touch with each other. We are in the process of collating a master phone/email list that will enable us to contact parishioners, especially our most vulnerable. If you are aware that we do not have your current details please email or phone the parish office. Thank you.

Notice sheet for both parishes will still be uploaded onto our webpage each Friday, however if you would like a hard copy or copies to deliver it into letterboxes of those around you, please contact the office to arrange.
