

Reflection on the Gospel – Easter 2A (John 20:19-31)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

Not so long ago we used to speak of the Sundays “after” Easter. The terminology has changed and we now speak of the Sundays “of” Easter. In other words, we now recognise that the liturgical readings and prayers for each Sunday between Easter and Pentecost invite us into different movements of the one great symphony of resurrection faith. Today’s gospel tells of fear and joy and blessing. We bring our present experience of pandemic into dialogue with all of this.

The first scene in today’s gospel has the disciples hiding behind closed doors “for fear” of those who had handed Jesus over to be executed by the Roman authorities. As supporters of someone executed on a political charge, they had reason to be fearful. Jesus appears among them, offers a greeting of peace, and tells them that he has been sent by God, his “Father”. They receive from him the gift of the Holy Spirit. He sends them in turn to bring peace and to mediate the forgiveness of God through the power of the Spirit. The story invites us as believers to place ourselves in the shoes of the earliest disciples. It invites us to be open to receive the gift of the Spirit, to emerge from behind the doors that close us in on ourselves and that prevent us from rising above the fear of reprisals in the pursuit of justice and peace.

The second and third scenes in today’s gospel focus on Thomas who was not with the other disciples when Jesus first appeared in their midst. Thomas seems to trust only his own experience. We all know people like Thomas. They test our patience because they seem to lack imagination. Then they make big statements when they come around to understanding what everyone else has known for a while. If we think, however, that those who hear in the first place are any better than Thomas, we need to note that the doors are still closed eight days later! The simple fact of knowing has not dispelled the fears. Even those who do believe and trust often need time to take the gospel message on board.

All three readings this Sunday affirm those who believe without “seeing”. In the reading from Acts, many who had not seen the risen Jesus are drawn to the community of faith-filled believers. The community addressed in 1 Peter have “never seen him [the Christ]” and yet they love him and are filled with inexpressible joy. In the gospel, we too are declared blessed: “Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe”,

As we continue to celebrate Easter, we join with the global community in celebrating the 50th annual Earth Day on Wednesday of this week. The theme for 2020 is climate action. We have dispelled our fears, listened to the science on Coronavirus and taken courageous action. We might pray for the same courageous action to save our planetary home.

Keeping in Touch — Fr Jorge

Hello My Dear Parishioners,

It's been four weekends the last time we gather and break bread together to celebrate the Eucharist and we missed out welcoming together the Joyful Celebration of Easter, but non the less it does not diminish the gifts that this season brings.

We are now on the Second Sunday of Easter, The Risen Jesus appears to his disciples who are gathered behind closed doors and in fear, he gave them peace and breathed on them the Holy Spirit. Just like the disciples we are in fear and there are a lot of uncertainties because of the unprecedented times we are facing. May all of us receive the peace Jesus brings and be strengthened by the Holy Spirit that is given to us. This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday, may God's Mercy be upon us and the whole world.

I am with you all specially at this time and keeping you all in my prayers and masses. Let us keep safe, stay home, look after each other, we are all in this together, keep the faith prevent in prayer we will arrive on the other side together. I miss you all. God Bless!

Special Thanks to David and Maureen for organizing our Spiritual Communion every weekend and I am inviting you to follow our SAP liturgy website and join us in prayer at the comfort of your home. Here is my email and you may reply directly to me in this address: jorge.dechavez@ballarat.catholic.org.au.
