PUBLIC LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS ARE CANCELLED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

Anzac Day

This year the celebration of Anzac Day will be muted. No marches, no large reunions, few speeches at War Memorials. The soldiers and others who lost their lives in war will be remembered, however, as they should be.

Indeed, the celebration will perhaps speak more eloquently because of its simplicity. Read Andrew Hamilton's reflection on this year's ANZAC Day in Eureka Street.
