Third Sunday of Easter

Acts of the Apostles (Acts 2:14, 29-33)

On the day of Pentecost Peter stood up with the Eleven and addressed the crowd ...

“Friends, no one can deny that the patriarch David himself is dead and buried: his tomb is still with us.

But since he was a prophet, and knew that God had sworn him an oath to make one of his descendants succeed him on the throne, what he foresaw and spoke about was the resurrection of the Christ: he is the one who was not abandoned to Hades, and whose body did not experience corruption.

God raised this man Jesus to life, and all of us are witnesses to that.

Now raised to the heights by God's right hand, he has received from the Father the Holy Spirit, who was promised, and what you see and hear is the outpouring of that Spirit”.

The word of the Lord

An Act of Spiritual Communion

At this time, we cannot receive you Lord Jesus sacramentally in the Eucharist.

Help us to welcome you spiritually as we wait for the day when your saving sacrifice will be offered and the divine banquet will be spread in our churches once more.

You are the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof.
But only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

My Jesus, come to me.
I long for you;
Let me always be at one with you.

Lest We Forget

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

*At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We shall remember them.*
