Anne Hunt on the Trinity

Parishioners who always used to pick up a paper copy of The Parish Pump when they came to Mass at St Pius X may remember Anne Hunt's interesting reflections which were often published on the other side of our weekly bulletin. Anne has provided some reflections on the Blessed Trinity. They can be found at our diocesan website, www.ballarat.catholic.org.au under News & Events – Coronavirus -- The Church's information and advice. (Don't give up when you look for it: it's worth the effort!)

Public Holiday?

On Monday 8 June we commemorate the Queen's Birthday by taking a public holiday, though this year it will be a holiday in name only for many of us who are battling with unemployment or reduced employment. Let's keep up the prayers and the practical support for all who are in need – and let's not forget a prayer, too, for Her Majesty.

Thank You for Giving

Planned Giving May: $1,959.00
Pledged: $4,160.00

A Message From Mercy Place

We are advised that when we are once again able to celebrate Thursday morning Masses at Mercy Place both the celebrant and visiting members of the congregation must have provided evidence that they have been vaccinated against influenza this year.

Did You Know?

Father Michael has been writing weekly homilies, even though no one is in the church to hear them. They are still being published on the parish website: Warrnambool West and Dennington at www.ballarat.catholic.org.au

Holy Trinity, One God.

Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth:
Set up your kingdom in our midst.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God:
Have mercy on me, a sinner.

Holy Spirit, breath of the living God:
Renew me and all the world.
