14th June 2020 The Body and Blood of Christ

WEEKDAY MASS: Because social distancing limits us to using the main part of St Augustine's church rather than our cosy weekday chapel at the back, as its WINTER and the church is COLD, please RUG UP when attending Mass – gloves might be a good idea for not only keeping COVID-19 at bay but the cold as well. Numbers are limited to 20. Please sit in the same place at each Mass. Communion is limited to the Body of Christ only and the Sign of Peace can be offered via a wave, a bow or a smile from where you are sitting and standing.

Tuesday 16th June	– No Mass	(Numbers limited to 20 at each Mass)
Wednesday 17th June	– 10.00am Mass
Thursday 18th June	– 10.00am Mass
Friday 19th June	– 12.00noon Mass

SUNDAY MASS: Hopefully we'll soon be able to have gatherings of up to 50 from which time we'll return to our normal 8.30pm Saturday and 10.30am Sunday Masses at St Augustine's.

AVOCA AND DUNOLLY MASS: Similar to the reasons for recommencing Weekday Mass, we have recommenced celebrating Sunday Mass at Avoca and Dunolly. Under the maximum 20 person limit, this is for REGULAR ATTENDEES ONLY at Avoca and similarly at Dunolly.

AVOCA AND DUNOLLY ASSEMBLIES: Each community will need to discuss this and decide when these may again be possible plus other local issues etc.

ST KEVIN'S, AVOCA – 8.30am Mass 1st and 3rd Sundays each month.
– FOR REGULAR ST KEVIN'S ATTENDERS ONLY (20 Maximum)

Also 8.30am Assembly at Avoca on 2nd & 4th Sundays of each month.

ST MARY'S, DUNOLLY – 8.30am Mass 2nd and 4th Sundays each month.
– FOR REGULAR ST MARY'S ATTENDERS ONLY (20 Maximum)

ST MARY'S, DUNOLLY ASSEMBLIES?:

This will be discussed after Mass today, Sunday 14th June.

Two boys were walking home from Sunday school after hearing a strong preaching on the devil. One said to the other, 'What do you think about all this Satan stuff?' The other boy replied, 'Well, you know how Santa Claus turned out, it's probably just your Dad..'

At Sunday School they were teaching how God created everything, including human beings. Little Johnny seemed especially intent when they told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs. Later in the week his mother noticed him lying down as though he were ill, and she said, 'Johnny, what is the matter?' Little Johnny responded, 'I have pain in my side. I think I'm going to have a wife.'

Discernment papers help sharpen focus for Plenary Council

Six discernment papers for the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia have been released, one for each of the six national themes that emerged from the Council's Listening and Dialogue phase.

"The papers are the fruits of communal discernment. The aim of the discernment process was to draw upon the lived faith and experiences of more than 220,000 Australians, the living tradition of the Church, sacred Scripture, papal teachings and additional insights from outside the Church," said Archbishop Costelloe, the Plenary Council president. "While not the final word on the six thematic areas which emerged from the Listening and Dialogue process, I encourage everyone to receive them in the spirit of faith and discernment with which they have been written," he said.

Each paper provides a reflection on some elements of the relevant pastoral reality, articulates a theological vision, outlines a number of challenges to be overcome, suggests prioritised questions to be answered and develops some proposals for change. They will be foundational to the next stage of discernment toward the Plenary Council – the development of the working paper, or Instrumentum Laboris – and ultimately the agenda for the Council assemblies. Bishop Paul Bird was part of the writing group for the Prayerful and Eucharistic paper.
