13th Sunday in Ordinary Time—A Welcome Christ

The Christ we welcome is the Christ who gave his life for others, and our celebration would be a mockery if we were not prepared to welcome him in one another.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Psalm 46:2

All peoples, clap your hands.
Cry to God with shouts of joy!

COLLECT

O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people. Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON John 17:20-21

O Father, I pray for them, that they may be one in us, that the world may believe that you have sent me, says the Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

May this divine sacrifice we have offered and received fill us with life, O Lord, we pray, so that, bound to you in lasting charity, we may bear fruit that lasts for ever.

The Trinity—this is our dwelling, our “home,” the Father’s house that we must never leave.

- St Elizabeth of the Trinity

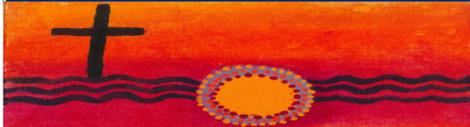

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.”

Muhatma Gandhi

Just because you can't see the air doesn't mean you stop breathing. And just because you can't see God doesn't mean you stop believing.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
Sunday
5 July 2020

The COVID-19 pandemic has forced NATSICC to rethink the ways in how we empower Catholics to celebrate our special day. This year, we have modified our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday resources to work in a digital setting. We are also holding the first-ever live-streamed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday Mass from St Francis Xavier Cathedral in Adelaide from 10am EST. The livestream will be available from the NATSICC homepage.

We are inviting everyone around Australia—and the World—to join us on 5 July 2020, as we come “Together in the Spirit” to celebrate the gifts of spirituality and culture.

When I raise my eyes to the grace of divine assistance, I am confident that I can accomplish virtuous deeds. - St. Bede the Venerable.

You are wayfarers, following roads to the ends of the earth, pilgrims on your way to the end of the age.

You are travellers on the road to freedom, a community of grace, with good news for all you meet.

Travel lightly, travel together. Learn as you go; you are disciples, the mission is urgent, the journey is long.

Travel with authority, be fearful of no one; You are apostles, opponents of evil, heralds of hope.

Travel with humility, no task is too menial; You are servants, the cross is your compass, love is your sign.

May your heart's journey be strengthened by the love of family, the companionship of friends, the beauty of the natural world and the nurture of your faith.

“Rivers do not drink their own water; trees do not eat their own fruit; the sun does not shine on itself and flowers do not spread their fragrance for themselves. Living for others is a rule of nature. We are all born to help each other. No matter how difficult it is . . . Life is good when you are happy; but much better when others are happy because of you.” Pope Francis.

Pray with great confidence, with confidence based upon the goodness and infinite generosity of God and upon the promises of Jesus Christ. God is a spring of living water which flows unceasingly into the hearts of those who pray. St. Louis de Montfort.

A storm in a tea cup; a thundering thing, the rain tumbles down and the heart starts to sing. A flicker of lightning, the sky starts to drop. The flowers in the vase do a strange little hop. The candle flame wobbles, a tiny bell rings. My cup runneth over with beautiful things.
