Sacramental Preparations and Celebrations for SY 2020

In these extraordinary times, we are planning ahead for sacraments in the parish of St Alipius this year. As it is not safe to gather in large numbers, all preparations for the sacraments will be undertaken at home by the parents, rather than in large meetings at the schools.

We anticipate the celebrations will happen in Term 4 2020, when it is safer for us to gather in larger numbers, even continuing into Term 1 2021. These masses will occur outside the parish masses due to the need to limit numbers. Bookings for the masses will be handled through the parish in an online format.

Students in Year 3 are eligible to receive Confirmation.

Students in Year 4 are eligible to receive Confirmation and Eucharist.

Some Year 4 students, new to the parish, may need to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation. Enrolments for these sacraments were taken by the schools and the parish at the beginning of Term 1 this year. If you still need to enrol your child, please do so as soon as possible so you can receive the preparation pack. Please contact one of the Catholic primary schools in the parish for the enrolment form.

Sacramental Celebrations

- Families seeking the Sacrament of Baptism are asked to contact the Parish Office to arrange the preparation and the date and time for the celebration. We are allowed to have twenty (20) attendees. Those done with the preparation can book preferred date of celebration.
- Those who want to avail the sacrament of Reconciliation are asked to contact the Parish Office during office hours.
- Funerals are being celebrated with up to 50 people able to gather in the Church.

Plenary Council Update: The journey to the Plenary Council 2020 continues. While it's in a context more different than we could have ever expected, the need to pray, discern and listen to the Holy Spirit and each other is more important than ever.

New Assembly Dates announced: Have you heard the news? We've locked in our new dates for the Plenary Council Assembly 1 and 2! Read the full media release here: <https://mediablog.catholic.org.au/dates-locked-in-for-plenary-council-assemblies/#more-8501>

Discernment Papers: The six discernment papers have been released and are available to be read. The National Plenary Facilitation Team will soon release resources to assist parishes and communities to explore each of the papers. Here in the diocese, we will endeavour to look at one paper for a month. For the month of July we will look at HOW IS GOD CALLING US TO BE A CHRIST-CENTRED CHURCH IN AUSTRALIA THAT IS Missionary & Evangelising? 'Mission' is God's initiative and proceeds from the Trinity, whose love overflows in creation and redemption. The Word and Spirit are present and active in the unfolding of the universe and in all human history, as evidenced in the goodness and truth found in all cultures and societies. The incarnate Son of God through his life, ministry, death and resurrection revealed God to us and redeemed us in a unique and unsurpassable way through his paschal sacrifice. His evangelising activity gave birth to the Church which is the visible manifestation of the Gospel command to "Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations" (Mt 28:19). We welcome any comments. Please send through to jane.collins@ballarat.catholic.org.au. Read the discernment paper Visit the Missionary and Evangelising theme's page.

Gospel Reflection

13th Sunday on Ordinary Time

(Matthew 10:37-42)

By: Veronica Lawson RSM

What price are we prepared to pay to create a just, equitable and healthy planetary community? That question is at the heart of today's gospel reading. That was, in essence, the question that Jesus of Nazareth put to his disciples and the question that Matthew put to his community some sixty years after Jesus' death. We seem to be at a turning point in world history, with a climate crisis, a pandemic that has claimed the lives of some 410,000 people and a new consciousness of the discrimination and violence experienced by people of colour. What price are we prepared to pay to change the way we live so that black lives matter to everyone without exception and so that we might meet the needs of everyone within the means of the planet? We might learn from the witness of the hundreds of medical professionals who have died from Covid-19 contracted from their patients. Last week, I spent time with the photos in the Guardian of some of these courageous people and read a list of their names. I wanted to drink in the spirit of generosity that permitted them to take up their respective "crosses" and lay down their lives for suffering others. Today's gospel reading brings to a close the so-called missionary discourse in which Jesus instructs his disciples on what it means to be a disciple. While some of the nuances of those instructions are lost in translation, Jesus' words to the disciples can still speak to us as contemporary disciples. In following the way of Jesus and living the gospel of truth and justice and compassion, we can be faced with excruciating choices. We cannot always satisfy family if we want to be true to what we believe or if we want to expose injustice and dishonesty: there is often a deeper commitment that transcends the bonds of family relationship. We may even be called to relinquish, for the sake of a greater good, work that we love or income on which we depend. In other words, there is deep suffering in the way of discipleship, suffering that comes from being true to a mission that brings life to others despite the cost to ourselves. Taking up the cross is a powerful metaphor for being willing to endure whatever hardships are involved in realising the vision of God's empire as opposed to the brutal empire of "Rome". God's empire finds expression in our times in every attempt to enshrine just policies and practices in law. It finds expression in every attempt to free the most marginalised from the impact of unjust policies and practices. Words are not enough: we are to live out in our lives the pattern of Jesus' life, a life characterised by hospitality or welcome and attention to the vulnerable. A cup of cold water for "the little ones" becomes the emblem of discipleship and in our post-industrial times the little ones include all God's thirsty creatures, human and other-than-human
