

5th July 2020

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time—A Welcome Christ

'MY YOKE IS EASY.' During the Vietnam war a soldier once saw a boy carrying a child on his back. 'He must be heavy,' the soldier remarked. 'He's not heavy,' the boy replied, 'he's my brother.' Hopefully, we experience the yoke of Jesus as light and easy. Serving others and living the Gospel can be burdensome at times but it also brings freedom and joy to our hearts and rest for our souls.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Cf Psalm 47:10-11

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

COLLECT

O God, who in the abasement of your Son have raised up a fallen world, fill your faithful with holy joy, for on those you have rescued from slavery to sin you bestow eternal gladness.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. Alleluia!

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

May this oblation dedicated to your name purify us, O Lord, and day by day bring our conduct closer to the life of heaven.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Matthew 11:28

Come to me, all who labour and are burdened, and I will refresh you, says the Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Grant, we pray, O Lord, that, having been replenished by such great gifts, we may gain the prize of salvation and never cease to praise you.

NATSICC Liturgy Team Welcome Together in the Spirit

Whether we are able to come together physically in Churches, or via a digital platform, we feel enriched by the fact that, as Australians, will be "Together in the Spirit" on 5 July 2020. the Gospel of the day calls for those of us that are weary, to share our burdens with God. Communities around Australia, both First nations and non-Indigenous, have endured bushfires, droughts and now a pandemic, it is only natural that our spirit also becomes weary. There are many burdens that exist in our communities. With the new challenges presented in times like these, it is important that we continue to place our trust in God, and try even harder to embody the spiritual gifts of empathy, friendship and love for one another.

We are also holding the first ever live-streamed, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday Mass from St Francis Xavier Cathedral in Adelaide from 11.30 EST. We are inviting everyone around Australia—and the World—to join us on 5 July 2020, as we come "Together in the Spirit" to celebrate the gifts of spirituality and culture.

Together in the Spirit Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday 5 July 2020

The COVID-19 pandemic has forced NATSICC to rethink the ways in how we empower Catholics to celebrate our special day. This year, we have modified our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday resources to work in a digital setting. We are also holding the first-ever live-streamed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday Mass from St Francis Xavier Cathedral in Adelaide from 11.30 EST. The livestream will be available from the NATSICC homepage. We are inviting everyone around Australia—and the World—to join us on 5 July 2020, as we come "Together in the Spirit" to celebrate the gifts of spirituality and culture. ### Prayer for Reconciliation

God of all creation, as we journey together in this Great Southern Land, we pray for healing, forgiveness and unity, creating a path of good will, with justice and compassion, Jesus, through the power of your love, you have given us the courage, wisdom and strength to share our gifts and talents in humility. In peace and understanding we reconcile with each other. Creator Spirit, we come together in prayer and thanksgiving for the many blessings we have received. Allow your Spirit to wash over us and give us strength to walk together as one.
(Reconciliation Church prayer was written by a small group of Aboriginal Elders and Reconciliation Church staff members in 2014.)

WINTER

A storm in a tea cup; a thundering thing, the rain tumbles down and the heart starts to sing. A flicker of lightning, the sky starts to drop. The flowers in the vase do a strange little hop. The candle flame wobbles, a tiny bell rings. My cup runneth over with beautiful things.
