If You're Reading a Paper Copy of This...

We know that lots of the people who usually pick up a copy of The Parish Pump from the church haven't seen our weekly bulletin now for months. Some people do see it online and some have been taking a copy from the Mary MacKillop chapel but these days many see neither version.

If you are reading a paper copy of this bulletin, you will notice on the opposite page an invitation to make your financial contribution to the parish and the presbytery in a new way while you're unable to put your money on the plate in church. On the paper copy there's reference to the name of a long online site – ballarat.cdfpay.org.au/details/?id=123 – which possibly puts many people off before they start. It's much easier to go straightaway to the Warrnambool West-Dennington site under Parishes in Our Diocese at ballarat.catholic.org.au where The Parish Pump appears and where you don't have to copy the long site name; it just says "click here" where, on the paper copy, there is that very long name. If you've read this far, we hope it helps...helps you, that is, but us too!

Thank You for Giving

A Message From Mercy Place

We are advised that when we are once again able to celebrate Thursday morning Masses at Mercy Place both the celebrant and visiting members of the congregation must have provided evidence that they have been vaccinated against influenza this year.

Did You Know?

Father Michael has been writing weekly homilies, even though no one is in the church to hear them. They are still being published on the parish website: Warrnambool West and Dennington at www.ballarat.catholic.org.au

Presbytery Income

We know you can't put your money on the plate these days, but if you click here you can make your usual contribution to the upkeep of the parish and the presbytery for which we shall be profoundly grateful.
