Saint of the Week St Elizabeth of Hungary, Feastday: November 17

Patron: of bakers, beggars, brides, charities, death of children Birth: 1207 Death: 1231

St. Elizabeth of Hungary, also known as St. Elizabeth of Thuringia, was born in Hungary on July 7, 1207 to the Hungarian King Andrew II and Gertrude of Merania. As soon as her life began, she had responsibilities from being a royal pressed upon her. While Elizabeth was very young, her father arranged for her to be married to Ludwig IV of Thuringia, a German nobleman. Because of this plan, Elizabeth was sent away at the age of four for education at the court of the Landgrave of Thuringia. Continue reading www.catholic.org/saints

Thoughts of the Week

- I give compliments freely and generously. Compliments are a mood enhancer not only for the recipient, but also for me. And a small tip for the recipient of a compliment, never, NEVER turn it down, just say "Thank You".
- I have learned not to bother about a crease or a spot on my shirt. Personality speaks louder than appearances.
- I walk away from people who don't value me. They might not know my worth, but I do.
- I remain cool when someone plays dirty to outrun me in the rat race. I am not a rat and neither am I in any race.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year A

St Francis of Assisi,

From the Parish Team

This week's Gospel gives us another image of the Kingdom. We have an outrageously generous God who lavishes us with gifts and only asks we use them to spread this spirit in the community. The spirit is evident of those returning to Masses, albeit the small numbers. We have had special times catching up with friends over a cuppa or luncheon. Let's keep us this generous spirit!

Working together generates energy and ideas.

Nothing is too big for us when we work together.

In two weeks time, the Covid rules for Mass will change again from November 23rd. We will be allowed to have 50 people in our church with the required space between us. The pews will have markings on them. This is indeed great news. But it has us suddenly going from 10kms per hour to 80! The plan is the following:

Mass 10.30am in Stawell in the Church. We can fit 30 people with the 4sq metre spacing rule.

- Mass Sunday Nov 29th Parishioners with surnames A-K
- Mass Sunday Dec 6th Parishioners with surnames L-Z
- Mass Sunday Dec 13th Parishioners with surnames A-K
- Mass Sunday Dec 20th Parishioners with surnames L-Z
- Please come 10 minutes early so you can sign the Mass Attendance sheet for Covid regulations. Unless you are a visitor, we will no longer need your telephone number. We have that on file now

Not sure what will happen for Christmas, but we may have further changes by then.

First Reading Prv 31:10-13. 19-20. 30-31

Give her a share in what she has worked for.
A perfect wife – who can find her?
She is far beyond the price of pearls.
Her husband’s heart has confidence in her,
from her he will derive no little profit.
Advantage and not hurt she brings him
all the days of her life.
She is always busy with wool and with flax,
she does her work with eager hands.
She sets her hands to the distaff,
her fingers grasp the spindle.
She holds out her hand to the poor,
she opens her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty;
the woman who is wise is the one to praise.
Give her a share in what her hands have worked for,
and let her works tell her praises at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 127:1-5. R. v.1

(R.) Happy are those who fear the Lord.

- O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!
By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper. (R.)
- Your wife like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table. (R.)
- Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion
in a happy Jerusalem
all the days of your life. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Thes 5:1-6

The day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night.
You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about ‘times and seasons’, since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, ‘How quiet and peaceful it is’ that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it.
But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 15:4. 5

Alleluia, alleluia!
Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord;
my branches bear much fruit.
Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 25:14-15. 19-21

Because you have been faithful over a few things, enter into the joy of the Lord.

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: ‘The kingdom of heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out. Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. “Sir”, he said “you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made.” His master said to him, “Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master’s happiness.”

Gospel Reflection

This week’s gospel is a very familiar parable and one that is often used with students and young people. It is generally used as an encouragement to make the most of the gifts and skills that the listeners possess. It is rarely, however, placed in its context as part of the full Chapter 25 lesson about the time of waiting and preparation for the coming of the Lord and the Christian life.

Again, the story is presented as a parable of the Kingdom – a glimpse into the right order of things in the realised Kingdom. A very wealthy master entrusts his considerable assets to his servants to manage in his absence. The three servants were allocated money, ‘each in proportion to his ability’. The emphasis of the parable is on what each servant did with the funds they were allotted. They were charged with managing the money in the place of their master; acting in their master’s place to further develop his wealth.

Like all of Jesus’ parables, this one has a sting in the tail. Although the third servant has done nothing illegal or corrupt, he is very harshly dealt with. His crime is laziness! He was given a great opportunity to demonstrate his abilities and yet he shied away and returned to his master exactly what had been entrusted to him, unimproved. The author of Matthew’s gospel uses this parable to shock the audience out of complacency. They cannot rely solely on the promised return of the Lord, they must continue to act on Jesus’ message and work to bring about the Kingdom in their own lives. Those who fail to act, leaving everything to the work of God, are as bad as the lazy servant who failed to grasp an extraordinary opportunity.

Generosity that supports the weak, consoles the afflicted, relieves suffering and restores dignity to those stripped of it, is a condition for a fully human life.

Prayer for the Moment

We Bring Your Love. Loving God, Help us to focus on what we have not on what is removed or changed. Strengthen us when we feel discouraged or overwhelmed. Embrace us so that we know your loving presence within us and among us. Walk with us as we bring your love, and carry your light, into our world. Amen. Sandra Lucas, MDiv., BCC

Sunday 15 Nov 2020

Priest: Brothers and sisters, alert to our needs and the needs of the world let us bring our prayer before the God of all.

Reader: That those who use their gifts and talents for others will be abundantly blessed.
Hear us, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That all those who have died in war will be honoured by their nations and will be received into God’s eternal kingdom.
Here us, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That warring groups and nations will put down their arms and instead collaborate on building a just and safe world.
Here us, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That we will continue to adhere to health precautions, being ever mindful of those who are especially vulnerable to the coronavirus.

Here us, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That the ancient culture and heritage of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders will be honoured as we celebrate NAIDOC Week.
Here us, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That students preparing for exams will remain calm and focused and not be overwhelmed by fear or anxiety. Here us, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That students who are completing their studies will find meaningful opportunities in the next phase of their lives.

Here us, we pray:

Reader: For those who have died including Wayne Jerrum and all those whose anniversaries occur at this time, will be rewarded for their goodness, Hear us, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Priest: Generous God, you lavish us with gifts so that we may work for the coming of your reign. Hear these prayers and help us to remain faithful to your word. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen. © Creative Ministry Resources Pty Ltd
