NADIOC WEEK - Ronnie Williams was born in Albany, Western Australia in 1940. He became an Aboriginal pastor and elder with a passion for mentoring young men. He was widely regarded as a father in the faith and a leader in reconciliation. Among the Aboriginal people he was known as "Kurta kurta" – everybody's brother. Ronnie died in 2003.

Psalm 23 – Aboriginal Style by Uncle Rev Ron William

My big fella boss up in the sky is like father Emu.

He will always look after me and take me to green grass,

And lead me to where the water holes are full and fresh all the time.

He leads me away from the thick scrub and helps keep me safe from the hunters, dingoes and eagles.

At night time when I am very lonely and sad, I will not be afraid,

For my Father covers me with his feathers like father emu.

His spear and shield will always protect me.

My big fella boss always give me a good feed in the middle of my enemies.

In hot times he makes me sit down in a cool shade and rest.

He gives me plenty of love and care all of my life through.

Then I will live with my big fella boss like a father emu that cares for his chicks in good country,

Full of peace and safety for everyone and evermore.

"I think we Aboriginal fellas know more about what the Bible is actually talking about in the spiritual dimension. We are more like the ancient Hebrew people than the whitefellas are. Another thing is, God was already here before the whitefellas came. We heard the Creator speaking to us" Uncle Rev Ron Williams
