

8th NOVEMBER 2020
32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf Psalm 87:3

Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

COLLECT

Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity, so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are yours.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 62:2-8

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and ready; you know not when the Son of Man is coming.. Alleluia!

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Look with favour, we pray, O Lord, upon the sacrificial gifts offered here, that, celebrating in mystery the Passion of your Son, we may honour it with loving devotion.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf Luke 24:35

The disciples recognised the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Nourished by the sacred gift, O Lord, we give you thanks and beseech your mercy, that, by the pouring forth of your Spirit, the grace of integrity may endure in those your heavenly power has entered.

IRISH TOAST

There are good ships, and there are wood ships, the ships that sail the sea. But the best ships are friendships, and may they always be.

IrelandCalling.ie

There is a terrible hunger for love. We all experience that in our lives—the pain, the loneliness. We must have the courage to recognise it. The poor you may have right in your own family. Find them. Love them.

- St Teresa of Kolkata

Keep in mind that our community is not composed of those who are already saints, but those who are trying to become saints. Therefore let us be extremely patient with each other's faults and failures.

- St Teresa of Kolkata

Weekday Masses

Tuesday—Saturday at 9.30 am

Because only 20 are allowed, I suggest we attend one day only each week apart from the two cleaners and Sacristans John McCarthy and Cathy Hand. (Fr Lawrie)

Beautiful Prayer For All of Us

Dear God

Spring is a metaphor for change. Some changes we eagerly await, and some we abhor. Some changes we plan and others arrive uninvited. To all these changes we ask the gift of Your perspective beckoning us to expectation, hope and rebirth. May the sunlight and the rain be reminders that You are at work renewing the earth.

As a God of renewal, You are ever at work in our lives, too. Open our eyes and lives to the needed changes in our lives this Spring. Awaken us to new life and perspective, for we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

"God carries us through the storms"

Mary MacKillop

"Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success."

Henry Ford

"All One in Christ Jesus"

Every morning prepare your soul for a tranquil day.
- St Francis De Sales

"Make it a practice to judge persons and things in the most favourable light at all times and under all circumstances.
St Vincent de Paul

At this point I have nothing left, but I still have my heart, and with that I can always love. BI Chiara Luce Badano (age 15)

THE LORD'S DAY

Key Quote from Fratelli Tutti (Pope Francis, 4-10-2020) Racism

A readiness to discard others finds expression in vicious attitudes that we thought long past, such as racism, which retreats underground only to keep reemerging. Instances of racism continue to shame us, for they show that our supposed social progress is not as real or definitive as we think.

A Parish VCE & University Prayer

Lovingly Father, we bring before you our VCE & University Students. Give them the gifts of wisdom, right judgement, knowledge and courage. Bless them with calm hearts and clarity of mind as they sit for their exams. May they be affirmed in their efforts and may they know that you are there with them. We pray that they will stay calm under pressure and work to the best of their ability. May they feel your loving presence in their lives, now and always, and may they be strengthened by the prayerful support of us, their parish community. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Sacraments are a privileged way in which nature is taken up to God to become a means of mediating supernatural life. Through our worship of God, we are invited to embrace the world on a different plane. Water, oil, fire and colours are taken up in all their symbolic power and incorporated in our act of praise. - Laudato Si (2015)

Prayers for the Faithful Departed

Dear God, We remember our relatives and friends who have died. We miss them dearly and wish they were here with us. Help us to through our sorrow. Our grieving is a sign of our love for them. We know that we were blessed with these people in our lives, and that they continue to live in us. God, may we be comforted today in knowing that our loved ones are at peace, in your embrace, and that one day we will see them again. Amen

DID YOU KNOW . . . ?

In his Inaugural Address on January 20, 1961, John F Kennedy, the newly-elected President of the United States, gave the famous challenge: “My fellow Americans, ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country. My fellow citizens of the world ask not what America will do for you, but what together we can do for the freedom of man. Finally, whether you are citizens of America or citizens of the world, ask of us here the same high standards of strength and sacrifice which we ask of you. With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking God's blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own.” If we personalised Kennedy's statement it would read, “Don't ask, ‘What can my country do for me?’ Instead ask, ‘What can I do for my country’” And add, “Don't ask, ‘What can God do for me?’ Instead ask, ‘What can I do for God?’”

A prayer for Healthcare Workers during this time of the Coronavirus COVID-19

 Loving God,
We place into your care
All our doctors, nurses and healthcare workers.
Give them courage of heart and
strength of mind and body.
Keep them safe from harm.
May they know our deep gratitude
For all they are doing to heal and help those affected by the coronavirus.
God of all consolation
May they know your protection and peace
Bless them in these challenging
days and bless their families.
Amen
