Entering Into Lent

This Lent is starting differently. As we begin our second Lent with COVID, we are still enduring, as many people have termed it, a "long Lent" that began last Ash Wednesday and, thanks to the pandemic, just kept going.

For nearly a year, we have been living a life of significant sacrifice. For the good of our neighbour, we have abstained from social events and strapped on masks for any and every outing. We have skipped vacations and have altered routines. And we have endured the kind of mental, emotional and spiritual fatigue that comes with months of uncertainty and anxiety.

For these reasons, it is somewhat natural to be at a loss for how to engage in Lent this year. As one influential Catholic voice on Twitter asked recently: "How does one prepare for a new Lent when last year's Lent doesn't seem to have ended yet?"

Last week (10th February), during his weekly audience, Pope Francis delivered a profoundly beautiful reflection on prayer and its importance in our relationship with God, in the expression of our faith when we worship and within our daily lives.

Today I meet God, today is always the day of the encounter. There exists no other wonderful day than the day we are living. Today is real, today is concrete. And prayer is to be done today. Jesus comes to meet us today, the day we are living. And it is prayer that transforms this day into grace, or better, it transforms us:

The person who prays is like someone in love who always bears the beloved in his or her heart wherever they go.

Year of St Joseph - Monthly Reflections: Each month during the year of St Joseph, the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference will publish a reflection on the various aspects of St Joseph's life and character. The February reflection, written by Scripture scholar Sr Michele Connolly RSJ, explores the many ways in which St Joseph was "Attentive to the Word of God" <https://catholic.org.au/yearofstjoseph>
