Lest we forget

Anzac Day is a deep & complex event in the Australian psyche.

We pick up the themes, nuances & mood in our mass today.

It is a martyr's day when we commemorate the sacrifice of the fallen & honour those who gave their life that we might live.

It is a commemoration of the dead when we commend those who have died in war to the Lord, especially members of our own families.

It is prayer for peace because all war is horrible no matter what heroism reveals.

It is a day of national identity, an Australian 'coming of age' a decade and a half after the formation of the commonwealth.

It is a story of victory in defeat, survival, and life in the face of overwhelming odds.
