The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Yr B

First Reading Ex 24:3-8

A reading from the book of Exodus

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, 'We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed.' Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, 'We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey.' Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. 'This' he said 'is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 115:12-13. 15-18. R. v.13

(R.) I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

1. How can I repay the Lord
for his goodness to me?

The cup of salvation I will raise;
I will call on the Lord's name. (R.)

2. O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
you have loosened my bonds. (R.)

3. A thanksgiving sacrifice I make:
I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people. (R.)

One of the most wonderful things about Eucharist is that bread and wine (the ordinary fruits of the earth and the work of human hands) are understood to have many layers of meaning. Their relationship to the earth is not broken at the consecration – on the contrary the earthiness of the elements is valorised and blessed. - Artist Jenny Close

Second Reading Heb 9:11-15

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God.

He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.' After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

A VOCATION VIEW

A VOCATION VIEW: Through the ministry of our ordained priests, we receive Holy Communion. Through the Body and Blood of Christ, we are made one body: to become Christ-like ... purified ... ready to serve. Pray for Vocations.

Pope Francis @Pontifex.com 2021

Even if our prayers might ramble and be weakened by a wavering faith, we must never stop putting our trust in Jesus. Supported by Jesus' #prayer, our timid prayers rest on eagles' wings and soar up to heaven.

Stawell Notices

Our Lady of Fatima statue is out of lockdown!

For many years the fondly named "Mary's statue" has been in the Stawell parish in the care of the CWL. Parishioners have been invited to have Mary's statue in their home for a week to promote prayer. We are encouraged to pray for our parish and any intentions we might have. Certainly the pandemic is one right now. Recently Pope Francis commenced a "marathon of rosaries" and asked the world to join with him to pray for the eradication of Covid 19. The feast of Our Lady of Fatima on 13th May was an appropriate time for us to have Mary's statue out and about again to encourage us to respond to the Pope's request.

Anyone who would like to have the statue in their home for a week is invited to put their name on the clipboard at the back or the front of the church or to contact Margaret Rowe -53582421.

Covid Arrangements

The new arrangements are that we can have 50 people for Mass in Stawell and Ararat and 35 in Lake Bolac and Landsborough. We must QR code on entry (no paper and pen.) For now we will not cater for funeral cuppas due to the extra restrictions.

50 people: this week we will take our chances and welcome the first 50. In Ararat the extras will be in Parish Centre. In Stawell, I'll speak to the Interim Parish Council on Sunday. We'll let you know what happens next week.

australianwomenpreach.com.au

I've come across a great resource for people looking to reflect on scriptures during the week. The site features a different Australian woman each speaking on the Sunday readings for about ten minutes. This week, when the gospel is set during the feast of Passover, the great celebration of the Hebrew people being set free, Debra Zanella speaks about women and children escaping family violence. She speaks about relational and transformative love, that all people are worthy of love.
