Heal Country

By Catholic Education Diocese of Parramatta, July 2021

Heal Country! is the moving theme of this year's NAIDOC Week to be held from 4 to 11 July. The annual event is an opportunity for all Australians to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. The NAIDOC theme for 2021 – Heal Country. Today our world is in need of healing – environmentally, spiritually and socially. We must all come together as a global community to fight the injustices of inequality, racism and environmental damage.

Wimmera-Mallee Parish

Bishop Paul has decreed the establishment of the new Saint Paul VI Parish, Wimmera-Mallee. The new parish includes the area of the former parishes of Hopetoun, Horsham, Nhill and Warracknabeal. Monsignor Glynn Murphy and Fr Jim McKay currently serve in these parishes and will continue their service in the new parish.

Pope Francis to spend week recovering in hospital after intestinal surgery

The pope underwent a surgery at Rome's Gemelli Hospital on July 4 to relieve stricture of the colon caused by diverticulitis.

The surgery lasted for about three hours and included a hemicolectomy, which is the removal of the left part of the colon. Recovery from diverticulitis surgery typically includes a hospital stay of up to a week and at least another two weeks of limited activity.

REACH OUT IN FRIENDSHIP – Fr Andrew Hamilton S.J.

All people are precious in God's eyes and deserve respect, even those with whom we disagree strongly. Pope Francis often sails into headwinds in the causes he supports and in his reading of the Gospel.

Nations and people with much more power than he has often act in ways quite contrary to his advice. He is a man often in tension with his age.

This conflict between Pope Francis' teaching and the way in which the world works is also evident in his intention for July. He calls for social friendship in all situations of conflict, whether it be within the Catholic Church, between nations, between different groups in society, and between corporations and their employees. Social friendship urges us not to see people who oppose our ideas and have interests conflicting with ours as enemies to be overcome. We should see them rather as our potential partners in building a better and more respectful society. In such a world, as Pope Francis hints in his intention, it can take considerable courage to reach out to people with whom we disagree strongly. Social friendship begins from a quite different place. In all our relationships it urges us not to look first at their ideas or the badges other people wear. It looks first into the eyes of the persons whom we meet, seeing them as persons like ourselves. They are precious in God's eyes and deserve respect. In Pope Francis' words we seek dialogue, trying to understand where the people with whom we differ are coming from. Pope Francis speaks also of becoming architects of dialogue and friendship.

In social friendship the plan is to reach out to people with whom we differ so that we can together find a better way through our differences. (Fr Andrew Hamilton SJ is an editorial consultant at Jesuit Communications).
