As we sit out another weekend without being able to gather for Mass or Assembly, this absence makes us hunger all the more for when we can eventually "get back to normal." On this day, 25th July, in 2018, that's also the Feast of St James the Apostle, I walked into Santiago de Compostela with thousands of fellow pilgrims from across the world. Today we share our need for a better way of being with all the world and our prayers and thoughts are especially with those affected by the pandemic far greater than ourselves. While the disciples despaired: "What are 5 barley loaves and 2 fish among so many?" Jesus' feeding the 5,000 assures us that whatever we have, when we share this with one another, will be enough. St Paul reminds us: We are all called into one and the same hope" in the One who, in the words of the Psalm: "is close to those who call on the Lord from their hearts" and "answers all our needs." Fr John

FR PAT FLANAGAN REACHES 85: We congratulate Flags and his twin sister Gay who celebrated their 85th Birthday on Thursday "Ad multos annos"
