We acknowledge the Tjapwurrong people, the traditional custodians of our parish land.

We pay our respects to their elders past and present. We respect the presence of the spirits of their ancestors among us.

Sunday August 22, 2021 21st Sunday of Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading Jos 24:1-2, 15-18

A reading from the book of Joshua
Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; then he called the elders, leaders, judges and scribes of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Then Joshua said to all the people: 'If you will not serve the Lord, choose today whom you wish to serve, whether the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are now living. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord.'

The people answered, 'We have no intention of deserting the Lord and serving other gods! Was it not the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, the house of slavery, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and preserved us all along the way we travelled and among all the peoples through whom we journeyed. We too will serve the Lord, for he is our God.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 33:2-3, 16-23. R. v.9

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)
2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal. (R.)
3. They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.
The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save. (R.)
4. Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him.
He will keep guard over all his bones,
not one of his bones shall be broken. (R.)
5. Evil brings death to the wicked;
those who hate the good are doomed.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R.)

Second Reading Eph 5:21-32

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians Give way to one another in obedience to Christ. Wives should regard their husbands as they regard the Lord, since as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife; and as the Church submits to Christ, so should wives to their husbands, in everything. Husbands should love their wives just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless. In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself. A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church, because it is his body – and we are its living parts. For this reason, a man must leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one body. This mystery has many implications; but I am saying it applies to Christ and the Church.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 6:63, 68

Alleluia, alleluia! Your words, Lord, are spirit and life: you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel Jn 6:60-69

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, 'This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?' Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, 'Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before? 'It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh has nothing to offer. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life. 'But there are some of you who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, 'This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him.' After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him. Then Jesus said to the Twelve, 'What about you, do you want to go away too?' Simon Peter answered, 'Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.'

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

The decisions called for in today's readings are life decisions. The people at the time of Joshua had to decide which god they would worship. The disciples of Jesus had to decide if he was the one who would fulfill their messianic expectations.

We have life decisions to make as well. How will we choose? The choices we make determine the character of our union with God. God called us out of the slavery of sin and protected us throughout the journey of our lives. Jesus walked with us through the challenges of life and performed wonders for us. Why should we look elsewhere? Because we face new challenges. The new demands placed on us may be so great, or the commitment required of us may be so demanding that we feel that we can no longer walk with him. The church may be changing in ways we do not appreciate, or it may not be changing in the ways we believe it should, and so we may feel that we can walk with him no longer. If we decide to commit ourselves, we will enter into a union with God that is deeper than anything we have previously known. However, this union will be based on faith. We may understand no more than we did in the past, things may be no more to our liking. But, 'to whom shall we go?' Jesus is God's holy one; he has the words of eternal life.

Letter from Ararat Eisteddfod Committee

The Ararat Eisteddfod committee is proceeding with plans to hold their annual Ararat Eisteddfod, which is to commence on Saturday 18 September. After holding a mini Competition in April of this year the committee is confident of holding a Covid safe event under present restrictions, and is dedicated to keeping the Ararat community safe.

Entries have been restricted so as we can manage numbers under Covid regulations governing events and the Ararat Town Hall. Competitors will be regulars who attend each year from regional areas.

The committee has decided not to ask Ararat businesses for their regular donations this year. This is our acknowledgment of how tough it has been for small business throughout 2020 and 2021 and our way of showing our appreciation to the many businesses that support us year after year. Of course if there are any businesses who would like to donate, we would of course be appreciative; and graciously receive their donation. We can be contacted via email ararateisteddfod@live.com.au) or via our Ararat Eisteddfod Facebook page. We know our visiting competitors and their families will support local business during the week of competition and know local business will welcome them and gratefully receive their patronage.

The Ararat Eisteddfod Committee would like to thank the Ararat community for their wonderful support of the Ararat Eisteddfod over many years. However, as numbers within the Ararat Town Hall will be heavily restricted and monitored very closely, we cannot welcome members of the Ararat community to view the wonderful performances this year. Everyone in the building will be counted for every session. We acknowledge the support of Dr. Tim Harrison and the Ararat City Council and Tim Lewis Ararat Town Hall Venue Coordinator and his staff, and the many regular volunteers who make this event possible. If you would like to volunteer please contact us.

Dance Schools are one of the many small businesses which have had particularly tough times over the last 18 months; being forced to close their doors completely for many many months and to operate on very reduced numbers at other times. Students and teachers have endured many months of reduced learning opportunities and even less opportunities to perform, with many eisteddfods cancelling their events again in 2021.

The Arts industry, of which dance is only one genre, has been decimated from the restrictions imposed on them by Covid 19. In dance the effects have extended from the grass roots of the small dance schools to the professional companies who have either cancelled or postponed performances. The Ararat Eisteddfod committee is dedicated to doing what they can to assist in the revival of the Arts; and by staging this Eisteddfod we are achieving our main operational aim, which is to provide a performance platform for the many dance students and their teachers, and for everyone to have fun and enjoy themselves. Fingers crossed for a successful event beginning on Saturday 18th September.
