WEEKEND MASSES RECOMMENCING 6/7 NOVEMBER:

Depending on any further variations to Public Worship restrictions between now and the weekend of 6/7 November, we hope to return to our regular Parish Mass schedule including 6.00pm Saturday and 10.30am Sunday Masses that weekend. Further details will be given on next weekend's Parish bulletin. On current advice, attending these Masses will be limited to those who provide Proof of Vaccination. We thank those who have already emailed their Vaccination Certificates to our parish Office and invite others to do likewise. We're making a list of those Vaccinated so we don't need to provide this each time we attend Mass from then on. We highly encourage everyone to be Vaccinated for the health and wellbeing of everyone. Weekday Masses are able to be attended by anyone unvaccinated as our limit of 20 people at these is rarely exceeded.

FR DENIS DENNEHY RIP: 12/6/1944 to 15/10/2021

A native of Artigallivan near Killarney in Ireland, Denis' seminary education was at All Hallows College where he was ordained on 16th June 1968. Encouraged to serve in the Ballarat diocese by his cousin Fr Mick Keogh, Denis was the last of the very many Irish priests who came to serve here from when this was established in 1874. He was appointed assistant at Ararat parish and then Swan Hill. In 1975 he became our diocesan priest working in Aitape PNG where he was free to express his immense creativity as a liturgist and really blossomed. He told me he quickly found that only action episodes really touched the natives so he built his liturgies of the Word around episodes including many of Jesus' parables. He was loved by his people so much that they once gave him their highest honour of dressing him as a chieftain. In early 1981 his PNG appointment concluded and he came to Maryborough as my assistant for 6 months. He was a great gift to our parish especially our youth. After a sabbatical back in Ireland, Denis was appointed to replace Gerry Ridsdale at Mortlake in 1982. It was a pretty terrible time for Denis who had to do a lot of listening and accepting of vicarious punishment. After Mortlake, Denis became pp of Charlton in January 1987 where the parish church burned down that a previous PP had under-insured. Under Denis they got a new church that has proved over the years to be a very good church. Then he had a short stint helping out in Colac till in January 1998 appointed pp of Camperdown. His eleven years there ended with contracting pneumonia that hastened early retirement. He then worked for a time in a remote aboriginal parish in Broome diocese till returning to Ireland on holiday where he suffered a stroke and spent nine years in Our Lady of Lourdes Nursing Home near Killarney then his final months at Kenmare Nursing Home till contracting COVID-19 and entering eternal life on October 15. Fr Patrick J Flanagan

ST MARY'S DUNOLLY 150th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS:

Already deferred to the weekend of 4/5 December 2021, we need to reconsider if we can continue to plan for then or if, due to the likelihood of pandemic-reduced limitations, it may be preferable to again defer these celebrations to another time when we can gather with minimal limitations.
