The First General Assembly of the Plenary Council

With the closing of this First Assembly, the Plenary Council process now enters a time of prayer, reflection, maturation and development. This will involve continuing reflection by the Members of the Council, and consultation with the wider Church community, as we develop propositions for presentation to the Second Assembly of the Council next July.

Pope's Prayer for November

Let us pray for the church, that She may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.

Do not grow old. No matter how long you live. Never cease to stand like curious children before the great mystery into which we were born.

Our Parish Vision

"Bringing People together in an atmosphere that is, welcoming nurturing and challenges All to share in the mystery of God's Love"

The biggest difference between money and time:

You always know how much money you have, but you never know how much time you have.

Do not judge by appearances; a rich heart may be under a poor coat. - Scottish Proverb

Plenary Council Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land. O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us. St Carthage, pray for us.

We must always bear in mind that the Eucharist is not something we do. It is not our own commemoration of what Jesus said and did. No, it is precisely an act of Christ! It is Christ who acts there, who is on the altar. It is a gift of Christ, who makes himself present and gathers us around him, to nourish us with his Word and with his life. Pope Francis

"The poor are not people 'outside' our communities, but brothers and sisters whose sufferings we should share" Pope Francis

When You Meet someone Deep in Grief

Slip off your shoes and set them by the door.
Enter barefoot this darkened chapel
Hollowed by loss hallowed by sorrow
Its grey stone walls and floor.
You, congregation of one
Are here to listen not to sing.
Kneel in the back pew, make no sound.
Let the candles speak.

Please don't give up on being the good person. I know it can be so hard at times, feeling taken advantage of, feeling like it's easier to be cold-hearted

But people like you are the gifts to this world and you are so important because only with your help, this world has a chance to be a better place to live in ...

He said, "In the midst of hate, I found there was, within me, an invincible love. In the midst of tears, I found there was, within me, an invincible smile. In the midst of chaos, I found there was, within me, an invincible calm. I realised, through it all, that in the midst of winter, I found there was, within me, an invincible summer. And that makes me happy. For it says that no matter how hard the world pushes against me, within me, there's something stronger - something better, pushing right back". Albert Camus

Psalms 28:10-11

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen

Prayer Focus

For all seekers of truth, that they will find wise guides to accompany them on their request.

The Alpha and Omega

The ancient Greeks could not have imagined the use to which the letters of their alphabet would be put. Their names abound in maths and science and even identify strains of deadly disease.

Christian writers adopted them to shed light on the mystery of Christ. He is Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the origin and the destiny of all that is.

Such a claim could easily be seen as a philosophical abstraction were it not grounded in his humanity. This Christ was pierced and died for love of humankind. The Spirit he breathed forth in death pervades the whole universe and suffuses it with glory.

Today we attune ourselves to this wondrous truth and give thanks.

Morning is God's way of saying one more time, go make a difference, touch a heart, encourage a mind, inspire a soul and enjoy the day.

"I AM THE WAY,
THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE"

An Early Morning Prayer

I come before you, O Lord. As the sun rises may your hope rise up in me. As the birds sing may your love flow out of me. As the light floods into this new day, may your joy shine through me. I come before you, O Lord and drink in this moment of peace, that I may carry something of your hope, love and joy today in my heart. Amen

A Prayer for World Day of the Poor

God of the Poor,
you hear and stand with all who suffer.
Be with us as we seek justice and mercy
for the poor in our world today.

Move us to see, hear and respond to the suffering poor in our midst.

Disturb and challenge us to take prophetic action with and for all who are afflicted.

Mould us to move closer and listen deeply to those who need our help and protection.

Empower us to speak out with courage against harm and degradation.

Guide us to build just communities of inclusion and acceptance.

Teach us to walk in your ways so that all can share in your abundance.

Open us to welcome your grace in the faces of people living at the margins.

Send us where we need to go to meet you.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, the Lord. Amen
