We recognise the traditional custodians of parish lands. We acknowledge their ancestors with respect and we are committed to working for justice and reconciliation.

Congratulations

This weekend Sr Marie Mansbridge celebrates the 60th year of her profession as a Sister of Mercy. We thank Sr Marie for her friendship and ministry and look forward to her continuing presence within our parish community. Sr Marie will share a few words with us this morning.

Leadership Teams: Warrnambool West, Koroit and Port Fairy are hoping to each have a Leadership Team which will meet regularly and respond to the needs of the local community. Within the new Star of the Sea Parish there is a real need that local custom and history be honoured. Nominations forms can be found at the back of the churches, or contact Parish Office.

Church Offerings: A new look envelope for Planned Giving commencing in March for St Patrick's (Port Fairy) and Infant Jesus (Koroit). This will also necessitate new envelope numbers. We will continue with the one collection which will include all Parish and Presbytery contributions. The contribution in the envelope is for parish expenses and your spontaneous gift (cash) is to help support the local priests, the Bishop, priests whose parishes are financially challenged and running costs of the local priest's household. We thank all parishioners for their continued support in these challenging times.

NB: Please contact Leanne at the Parish Office if you wish to give in another way eg direct debit, credit card or Catholic Development Fund (CDF).

Lenten Reflection: Published by the Archdiocese of Brisbane this booklet includes daily scripture readings and reflections to be used individually or in group discussions. Cost $4. Contact Parish Office

St Vincent de Paul: Koroit & Port Fairy conference thank you for generosity and support. $1,300 was received for the Christmas Appeal

Cards: Tuesday afternoon cards has resumed. This week they are at OLHC. All welcome

St Brigid's Crossley: Mass will be celebrated for the feast of St Brigid 5.00pm this Tuesday at St Brigid's Crossley. All welcome
