Sunday February 20, 2022 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

First Reading 1 Sm 26:2. 7-9. 12-13. 22-23

A reading from the first book of Samuel Saul set off and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, accompanied by three thousand men chosen from Israel to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph. So in the dark David and Abishai made their way towards the force, where they found Saul asleep inside the camp, his spear stuck in the ground beside his head, with Abner and the troops lying round him. Then Abishai said to David, 'Today God has put your enemy in your power; so now let me pin him to the ground with his own spear. Just one stroke! I will not need to strike him twice. David answered Abishai, Do not kill him, for who can lift his hand against the Lord's anointed and be without guilt?' David took the spear and the pitcher of water from beside Saul's head, and they made off. No one saw, no one knew, no one woke up; they were all asleep, for a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen on them. David crossed to the other side and halted on the top of the mountain a long way off; there was a wide space between them. David then called out, 'Here is the king's spear. Let one of the soldiers come across and take it. The Lord repays everyone for his uprightness and loyalty. Today the Lord put you in my power, but I would not raise my hand against the Lord's anointed.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 102:1-4. 8. 10. 12-13. R. v.8

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful.

1. My soul, give thanks to the Lord,
all my being, bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord
and never forget all his blessings. (R.)

2. It is he who forgives all your guilt,
who heals every one of your ills,
who redeems your life from the grave,
who crowns you with love and compassion. (R.)

3. The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy.
He does not treat us according to our sins
nor repay us according to our faults. (R.)

4. As far as the east is from the west
so far does he remove our sins.
As a father has compassion on his sons,
the Lord has pity on those who fear him. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Cor 15:45-49

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

The first man, Adam, as scripture says, became a living soul; but the last Adam has become a life-giving spirit. That is, first the one with the soul, not the spirit, and after that, the one with the spirit. The first man, being from the earth, is earthly by nature; the second man is from heaven. As this earthly man was, so are we on earth; and as the heavenly man is, so are we in heaven. And we, who have been modelled on the earthly man, will be modelled on the heavenly man.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 13:34

Alleluia, alleluia! I give you a new commandment;
love one another as I have loved you. Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 6:27-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke Jesus said to his disciples: 'I say this to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly. To the man who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek too; to the man who takes your cloak from you, do not refuse your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your property back from the man who robs you. Treat others as you would like them to treat you. If you love those who love you, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks can you expect? For even sinners do that much. And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners lend to sinners to get back the same amount. Instead, love your enemies and do good, and lend without any hope of return. You will have a great reward, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. 'Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge, and you will not be judged yourselves; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned yourselves; grant pardon, and you will be pardoned. Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap; because the amount you measure out is the amount you will be given back.'

New tenants will move into Fr John's house at the beginning of March. Very little needs doing to the inside, but the outside needs maintenance. Coming soon. There will be carparks set aside for up to six new tenants.

Visit by Fr Gary Jones, Diocesan Liturgical Commission

On Tuesday February 8 Fr Gary Jones came to look at St Patrick's Church. He made a number of recommendations and had a good chat with the handful who were there to hear him. There's lots to tell and lots to discuss. We'll need a Parish Council meeting ASAP and then a discussion with parishioners. The most urgent and non-negotiable is that we make the sanctuary safe with hand rails, and probably by lowering the sanctuary to one step. Gary also spoke about the visual clutter in the church. We talked about electrical wiring, painting, carpet, the screen, lots of things. More to come.

Study Tour of the Biblical Lands

Olive Tree Travel have planned a study Tour of the Biblical Lands from December 3-14, 2022. This tour is focussed on the Gospel of Luke engaging the narrative in the contextual landscape. The tour will be escorted by Dr Rosemary Canavan of Catholic Theological College. More information available from <https://www.olivetreetravel.com.au/upcoming-tours/>

A message from Aid to the Church in Need Australia: In many places throughout the world there is a shortage of priests and therefore religious sisters are the custodians of the faith. These sisters however often struggle to live and support the faithful, so across the course of a year ACN supports more than 18,000 religious sisters in Africa, Asia, Eastern Europe and Latin America. Could you help support a religious sister? Visit www.aidtochurch.org/sisters

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

Perhaps one of the most difficult lessons to learn is forgiveness of those whom we consider our enemies, those who have wronged us. As challenging as this may be, the Gospel calls us to a very high standard: we must be merciful as God is merciful. If such perfection can become a reality in our lives, we will be able to forgive. Paul assures us that we can indeed attain such perfection, not by ourselves, but through the power of the risen Lord whose image we bear. Paul plays with the theology of creation. In the beginning, we were made like the first Adam, earthly, limited, weak, concerned about the things of this world, and committed to our own well being. Through baptism we have been fashioned after the image of the second Adam, Christ the risen Lord. Being like Christ, we become godlike, empowered with his saving power, transformed with him into new beings. It is now in our power, which is really the power of the resurrection, to be merciful as God is merciful. In the risen Lord we experience a mystical transformation. From now on, all of our actions can flow from this new reality. Transformed by the power of the resurrection, we are capable of unprecedented good works. We can live without retaliation; we can render good for evil. We can be prodigal in our generosity toward others; we can relinquish any rights of proprietorship that we might enjoy. We can live with others without unfairly judging them. We can be like God, boundless in our forgiveness.

Martha and Mary Parish, Djap Wurrong Country

I'm making a specific proposal now, that we name our parish: Martha and Mary Parish, Djap Wurrong Country.

Martha and Mary

Martha and Mary were friends of Jesus and the sisters of Lazarus. They are referred to in Luke 10:38-42. Martha busied herself in service of the people while Mary sat with Jesus and listened. Listening to the Word of God and actively serving those around us is a good model for our parish. Luke 10:38-42 will appear on July 17 this year, the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C. Martha and Mary also appear in John 12:1-11 on the Monday of Holy Week, April 10 this year. Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead in a forerunner to his own resurrection. Again, Martha and Mary, as witnesses to the resurrection (of Lazarus) are a good model for our parish.

During the suggestions phase of our consultation one particular suggestion was that we honour the women of our parish. Another was specifically about Martha and Mary. It is clear to me that the shifting place of women both in our church and in our society will be an ongoing and important growth point in the coming years. I had wondered about "the holy women of the bible" which was always going to be too vague. I had thought we could have chosen a different heroine each year. At a time when women across the world are saying they have had enough of being disrespected in myriad ways, this is a good time to laud the women who were and are faithful friends of Jesus. What do you think of Martha and Mary?

Djap Wurrong Country

Another important growth point over the coming years will be the esteem with which we hold the people who tended this land for millennia before the colonial land grab. Just now the world is aghast that Russia might invade Ukraine, but too many don't seem to mind that Britain did it to the people who lived in "Australia". It is uncomfortable. It's messy. People were disrespected. They still feel disrespected. They claimed respect at the birthing tree while people claimed "white power" at Gariwerd. It is incumbent on the Church to be a prophetic voice in this messy and unfolding time of awareness and healing in which we find ourselves.

"The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the broken hearted ... Isaiah 61:1

Will the Djap Wurrong people be affirmed by this renaming of our parish? I don't know. I hope so. I'm asking. This is a once in a century opportunity to change the narrative and to establish a prophetic voice of respect not only in our local area but across Australia.

In today's Gospel. Jesus calls us to up the ante in love of the other. It hurts me that our first nations people are "the other." Time to change the story. While I'm consulting with our first nations people I'll be happy to receive your comments, by tearing off the bottom of the bulletin or by email.
