WE ARE A CHILD SAFE PARISH .

Dear Friends,

In the gospel we see that Jesus appoints and sends seventy-two in pairs to every town and place he intends to visit. He is the son of God, yet he desires to have collaborators in his mission. He has already chosen and formed a key group, the Twelve. Now he appoints sixty more collaborators. They went out for mission and came back rejoicing because "the demons were subject to us because of your name". Jesus told them, however, do not rejoice because the devils are subject to you but rejoice because your names are written in heaven.

Jesus wishes that his work should also be our own because our names are written in heaven through our sacrament of Baptism. By virtue of Baptism and confirmation we have the mandate to announce the coming of God's kingdom and to make it arrive for the people. So, we are called to be the collaborators in his mission. We have to pray for our mission. We also have pray to the Lord to send more workers or collaborators for his kingdom. So that many may respond generously to the call. We should respond to his call and undertake his mission of helping people to find his kingdom of love, mercy, and justice. For that we have to witness his kingdom by our worthy living of his discipleship or collaboration. Let us pray in our celebration to strengthen our faith so that we may be a worthy collaborator in his mission. -Neville.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Sunday 03 Jul 2022

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

First Reading: Is 66:10-14

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I will send toward Jerusalem peace like a river.

Rejoice, Jerusalem,
be glad for her, all you who love her!
Rejoice, rejoice for her,
all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled,
from her consoling breast,
that you may savour with delight
her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:
Now towards her I send flowing
peace, like a river,
and like a stream in spate
the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried
and fondled in her lap.
Like a son comforted by his mother
will I comfort you.

And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass.
To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 65:1-7. 16. 20. R. v.1

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

1. Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! (R.)
2. 'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men. (R.)
3. He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might. (R.)
4. Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold his love from me. (R.)

Second Reading: Gal 6:14-18

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians

The marks I carry on my body are those of Jesus Christ.

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation: (Please stand for the Gospel Acclamation): Col 3:15. 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
and the fullness of his message live within you.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Shorter form Lk 10:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Your peace will rest upon him.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road.

Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you."

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Re: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday – 3 July 2022

I am pleased to recommend to parishes and schools the 2022 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday resources that have been compiled by the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council (NATSICC). These resources have helped us to celebrate the gifts of our First Australians in the Church for many years.

The theme of the resources reminds us that we all have a responsibility to care for our community members and those outside our own groups. We must work together for the betterment of all. For parishes, the liturgical suggestions will assist in creating a rich celebration that embraces the beauty of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture in our Church. The youth activities that NATSICC has created in partnership with Edmund Rice Education Australia encourage students to begin their own journey of exploration into the history of our Great Southern Land and to seek out ways in which they can Get up! Stand up! And Show up!

As you come together across Australia on Sunday 3 July – on all homelands – please know that your presence is helping to create the Church that Jesus wants her to be.

Yours sincerely,

Bishop Charles Gauci DD

Chair, Bishops Commission for Relations with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples

Bishop of Darwin
