With heartfelt thanks

Following the death of my brother Tony Driscoll, I have felt so well supported by the parishioners of the Creswick and Daylesford Parishes. So many have offered thoughts and prayers, sent messages of condolence, sympathy cards, care packages, food and other expressions of generous care. Others came to St Arnaud to the Funeral

Mass on Saturday. Thank you to all.

Tony was much loved as a husband to Annette for 40 years, as a father to Charles, Eliza, James and Josephine and a grandfather to 4 grandchildren and older brother to Kate, Gabe, Winnie & Justin.

Tony was a passionate advocate for rural and regional Victoria, serving on the Northern Grampians Shire as Councilor since 2011 and was serving his third term as Mayor at the time of his death. May he rest in Peace.

With sincere gratitude, Fr Justin Driscoll
