This day is bringing to our diocese expert presenters Rev Dr Kevin Lenehan, Dr Paul Taylor and Ms Sophy Morley for a colloquium open to all parishes across the diocese. The subject for the day is the important role played by the Assembly (Congregation), particularly in the area of music. If the Assembly is not participating in the liturgical music, then the music may not be achieving its objective. This day aims to guide those preparing Liturgy in gaining knowledge and understanding in order to assist the engagement of the Assembly.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

After four months of meetings, discernment and dialogue, St Patrick's Cathedral Parish Council have been formulating a Constitution which will serve our local Parish. The role and purpose of the Parish Pastoral Council is to be service oriented, missionary and action based to assist with:

- Administration of the Sacraments;
- Proclamation of the Word of God
- Assist the Parish to grow and function on all levels including forming youth and children;
- Outward looking to reach all geographical areas and all people within the community with a view to evangelise in the name of Jesus Christ.

If you believe you are being called to serve the Parish and wish to use your God given gifts of the Holy Spirit, a copy of the Parish Pastoral Council Constitution and Expression of Interest Forms are available for collection from the Cathedral.

To assist with forming the Parish Council, each Wednesday evening from 7.00pm to 8.00pm commencing on 28th September until 9th November, there will be a Holy Hour concluding with Benediction. This time of silent prayer will be reflecting on a passage of Scripture taken from the Acts of the Apostles which is Luke's account of the formation of the early Church.

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL – 26th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME C

(Luke 16:19-31)

Global inequality of income and of opportunity has increased dramatically in the past few years. The gospel reading invites us to look, collectively and individually, at the wealth we enjoy, to sharpen our awareness of the needs of those who seek to share the bounty we claim for ourselves, to notice those who wait for justice at our gates and seek a part in the life we enjoy. Above all, it invites us to respond to the needs of those rendered poor by virtue of their physical limitations or disabilities. Such an inclusive embrace is the vision we espouse as we move towards the fourth week of the Season of Creation.

The gospel parable presents a nasty mega rich character using his wealth to support a totally self-centred life-style. He dresses in the finest clothes and feasts extravagantly every day. He has no concern for, or interest in, the destitute and badly wounded man, Lazarus, who has been cast at his gate and who longs for a share in whatever falls ('scraps' in our translation) from the rich man's table. The reference here is probably to the pita bread commonly used by diners at banquets to wipe their hands. The bread would be discarded after use and snapped up by the dogs. There is a reasonable chance that, even if the servants fail to offer Lazarus the leftovers, the dogs might share with him their daily fare. Begging for food was often the sole means of sustenance for those with disabilities. Lazarus has a serious disability: he is "sorely wounded"; he is "cast" at the gate and has no capacity to prevent the dogs from licking his sores.

Lazarus dies and is transported by angels into the arms of Israel's iconic ancestor, Abraham. In contrast, the rich man dies and suffers the torment of Hades. There is no mention of angels to transport him to the place of his ancestors. The rich man's suffering is exacerbated by the vision of the man whose needs he ignored in life now "a long way off" in Abraham's embrace. Earlier in Luke's story, Jesus has declared the bent-over woman to be a daughter of Abraham. Later, he will call the toll-collector Zacchaeus a "son of Abraham". To be "of Abraham" is to be true to the tradition inaugurated by Israel's ancestor in faith. It is to "hear" Moses and the prophets and their call to justice and right relationship.

Riches belong, not to the few, but to the whole Earth community. If they are all-consuming, they destroy our capacity to see or hear what really matters. All the honour and status they might bring are quite worthless in the final analysis. The rich man of the Lukan parable came to this realisation too late. An occasional walk in the woods or period of digital detox might provide us with time to reflect and to find ways to restore the balance required for the health of all on our planet.
