

NCLS Research Media Alert. For immediate release

NCLS Research presents free Webinar on 'Who's in the Pews?'

NCLS Research will present a demographic picture of Australian churchgoers from the latest National Church Life Survey, plus reflections from a panel of ministry practitioners.

Webinar Title: Who's in the Pews? Who really goes to Church today and what that means for ministry and mission

Date: Thursday Sept 29, 11am (AEST)

Keynote Speaker: Dr Ruth Powell, Director, NCLS Research

Practitioner Panel :

- Dr Coz Crosscombe, Anglican Diocese of Sydney
- Aaron Fozzard, Queensland Baptists
- Rev Dr Paul Goh, Uniting Church South Australia
- Major Sandra McLean, The Salvation Army

Get free tickets at : <https://NCLSWhosInThePews.eventbrite.com.au>

Summary Description: This free webinar offers a demographic picture of Australian churchgoers from the latest National Church Life Survey, plus reflections from a panel of ministry practitioners.

Event Description:

What do we know about the people who go to church in Australia today? How old are they? What is their education level? What is their cultural background?

This free webinar will present a demographic picture of Australian churchgoers based on the results from the latest National Church Life Survey, plus practical reflections from a panel of ministry practitioners.

In this webinar you'll discover:

- Gender, age, educational profile and cultural diversity of Australian churchgoers
- Practical ministry implications arising from the results, presented by a panel of experienced ministry practitioners

The keynote presentation will be presented by Dr Ruth Powell, Director of NCLS Research, followed by reflections from a panel of ministry practitioners. The panel of ministry practitioners include:

- Dr Coz Crosscombe, Anglican Diocese of Sydney
- Aaron Fozzard, Queensland Baptists
- Rev Dr Paul Goh, Uniting Church South Australia
- Major Sandra McLean, The Salvation Army

For more information, please contact Connie Lim at clim@ncls.org.au.