ST. KEVIN'S, AVOCA: 12.00 midday Mass, AGM and BBQ on Sunday 20th November (instead of 8.30am Mass that day).

FR. JOHN'S RECENT REPORT. After many hours in the air, including our 17 hour Perth to London flight then several days in Porto, including the magnificent train 🚂 journey along the Douro river to Pocinho, we're now 2 days in to what we came here for - the Portuguese Coastal Camino 🚶 from Porto to Santiago de Compostela. As its name suggests, along the beautiful Portuguese coast. Now relaxing at a Bar in picturesque Povoia de Varzim where we'll stay the night before setting out on our next seaside adventure tomorrow. Clear and sunny ☀ here and the Portuguese people are even friendlier than in Spain with our lack of language exceptionally well tolerated by the locals. The food is good, wine even better, and its with mixed feelings we'll be crossing over from Portugal into Spain in only another 3 or 4 days. Till then, Bom Caminho!

MEETING TO ORGANISE LAY MINISTRY TO THE SICK:

Tuesday evening October 18 in the Parish Centre at 7.00 pm. Lay Ministry to the sick. The response to my request for parishioners to take Holy Communion to the sick has been very generous. I'm hoping we'll be able to make teams of four to look after each sick parishioner, so that each Lay Minister will be visiting their sick parishioner just once each month.
