Liturgy Formation Workshop: Sunday 13th November 2022

The Diocesan Liturgical Commission is hosting a Liturgy Formation Session at St Joseph's Warrnambool on Sunday, 13th November 2022. Bishop Paul will celebrate Mass at 10.30am with the formation program beginning at 12.00 noon on the topics of Sunday Assembly of Word & Communion and scripture reflection. More details and registration information to come.

The two Sunday Assemblies that parishioners have recently experienced at St Pius X and St Joseph's were thoroughly prepared, most prayerful, and very well received by parishioners. Assemblies will occur from time to time when a priest is not available. These assemblies will be shared across all our parish communities. It is most important that all communities have prayer leaders who are well-prepared and formed. The workshop prepared by the Diocesan Liturgical Commission is a great opportunity to facilitate this.

Formation Evening for Ministers of Communion. To be arranged later in November. Stay tuned.

Has God Been Debunked? Who is God? Does God exist? What is the meaning of life? Join us for a series of discussions on the big questions of life, meaning and the universe. Everyone is welcome, whatever your belief system or lack thereof to some friendly and enlightening discussion of those important beliefs that underpin Christian thought.

Tuesday 18th October is the feast of St Luke, Evangelist
 Many of our Christmas traditions derive from Luke's Gospel, which narrates the infancy of Jesus. Scholars believe that Mary the mother of Jesus was one of his main sources. St Luke is patron saint of artists, as several ancient icons of Our Lady are attributed to him. A physician before becoming a missionary, St Luke is also patron saint of doctors.

Most charming and saintly Physician, you were animated by the heavenly Spirit of love. In faithfully detailing the humanity of Jesus, you also showed his divinity and his genuine compassion. Inspire our physicians with divine compassion for their patients. Enable them to cure the ills of both body and spirit that afflict so many in our day. Amen.
