Parish Priest Fr Matthew Thomas
 Assistant Priest Fr Shaiju Mathew

Edition: 16/2023

2nd Sunday of Easter Year A / 16th April 2023

Message from Fr Shaiju Mathew

The Gospel passage of this Sunday presents before us the narrative of yet another apparition of the risen Lord before his disciples with the highlight of the famous faith declaration " My Lord and my God" of Apostle Thomas. This testimony by St Thomas is very dear to me for he is the Apostle of India and moreover, he is the heavenly patron of my missionary society, The Missionary Society of St. Thomas the Apostle. With this deep faith in his Master which he expressed in the above stated verse, St. Thomas travelled to more distant lands, sowed the seeds of the gospel and finally accepted martyrdom to glorify the name of his Master, Jesus Christ. Let's get inspired by the same Missionary Zeal and spirit of St. Thomas and spread the love of Jesus with the people around us.

As we celebrate this Sunday as Divine Mercy Sunday, I consider it as an opportune time to express my deep sentiments of gratitude and bid goodbye to Mildura community for everything you, as members of this parish community have been to me. You may have already come to know that I am on a transfer and I move to Robinvale on the 20th of April to take up new responsibilities there. At this juncture my heart is overwhelmed with gratitude and I sincerely thank all of you for your love, care, support and friendship. May I take this opportunity to thank in a very special way Fr Matt Thomas, collaborating with whom I was discharging my priestly duties for this community since two years. May I also remember with gratitude all of you my friends in Mildura, Irymple, Red Cliffs, Merbein, Werrimull and more specially Carmel Russo, Margaret McDonald, Gardening and Maintenance Crew, Parish council members, Sacristans, members of other different committees, Religious Sisters and many other kind- hearted people among you who made my life here very pleasant and enjoyable and made me to feel quite at home.

As I take leave of you from here, I solicit your prayers and support to accompany me in Robinvale to carry out my responsibilities diligently. I will definitely miss your joyful company there. But let's meet together virtually in our daily prayers and of course, face to face in our future gatherings. Thanking you all sincerely together with the assurance of my love and prayers,

Your beloved Father Shaiju Mathew.

Tap & Go Presbytery 1st Collection

The Sacred Heart Parish has purchased a Tap & Go unit to trial at the Sacred Heart Church for the Presbytery— 1st Collection during the next few months. Should the trial be successful units will then be installed at all churches for 1st Collection. The unit is currently located on the bench near the Baptismal font.

Extract from Bishop Paul's Easter letter

I have concluded that it is not yet time to reintroduce the sharing of the chalice. While reception of Holy Communion under both species of bread and wine is a fuller sign of our sharing in the banquet of Christ, we can find reassurance in the teaching of the Council of Trent that the whole Christ, body and blood, soul and divinity, is contained under each species. So, even when we simply receive the host, we are receiving the whole Christ.

In regard to the way of receiving the host, recognising the continuing risks of the pandemic, and out of consideration for the health of all parishioners, I recommend reverent reception of the host in the hand rather than reception on the tongue.

May our Communion draw us ever closer to Christ and strengthen our love and care for one another.

God bless you all.

Bishop Paul

The Australian Catholic Bishops Conference Prayer for Peace and Justice in Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
 who change the hardened heart
 and break the power of violence,
 we entrust the people of Ukraine to you.
 Protect them in this time of peril;
 let them know not death but life, not slavery but freedom.
 You are Father of all;
 we are brothers and sisters.
 Give us the strength to live that truth in love,
 choosing peace not war.
 Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 2:42-47

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The faithful lived together and owned everything in common.

The whole community remained faithful to the teaching of the apostles, to the brotherhood, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers.

The many miracles and signs worked through the apostles made a deep impression on everyone.

The faithful all lived together and owned everything in common; they sold their goods and possessions and shared out the proceeds among themselves according to what each one needed.

They went as a body to the Temple every day but met in their houses for the breaking of bread; they shared their food gladly and generously; they praised God and were looked up to by everyone. Day by day the Lord added to their community those destined to be saved.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:2-4. 13-15. 22-24. R. v.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
his love is everlasting.

or

(R.) Alleluia!

1. Let the sons of Israel say:
'His love has no end.'
Let the sons of Aaron say:
'His love has no end.'
Let those who fear the Lord say:
'His love has no end.' (R.)
2. I was thrust, thrust down and falling
but the Lord was my helper.
The Lord is my strength and my song;
he was my saviour.
There are shouts of joy and victory
in the tents of the just. (R.)
3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.
This day was made by the Lord;
we rejoice and are glad. (R.)

Divine Mercy Chaplet Holy hour will be prayed at 3pm on Sunday 16th April at St Michael's Church, Buronga.

Next Weeks Readings:

Third Sunday of Easter Year A / 23rd April 2023

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 2:14, 22-23

Psalm: Ps 15:1-2, 5, 7-11

Response: Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Second Reading: Peter 1:17-21

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

Second Reading

1 Pt 1:3-9

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy has given us a new birth as his sons, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead, so that we have a sure hope and the promise of an inheritance that can never be spoilt or soiled and never fade away, because it is being kept for you in the heavens. Through your faith, God's power will guard you until the salvation which has been prepared is revealed at the end of time.

This is a cause of great joy for you, even though you may for a short time have to bear being plagued by all sorts of trials; so that, when Jesus Christ is revealed, your faith will have been tested and proved like gold – only it is more precious than gold, which is corruptible even though it bears testing by fire – and then you will have praise and glory and honour. You did not see him, yet you love him; and still without seeing him, you are already filled with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described, because you believe; and you are sure of the end to which your faith looks forward, that is, the salvation of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me;

happy those who have not seen me, but still believe!
Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'
After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven;

for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me.

Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you
