This weekend the Hepburn Swiss Italian Festa brings many to our local community in celebration of the Swiss Italian heritage of many throughout our region.

The very first entry into the Daylesford

Parish Baptism register in March 23rd

1862 was for the baptism of

Petro Aloyizi Tomassini, son of Eugenio Tomassini and Magdalena

Gacometti of Stony Creek. Many Swiss

Italian family names then appear in each of the Parish sacramental registers:

Bolla, Bonavia, Bonetti, Bravo, Caligari,

Casarotti, Comelli, DeCarlo, Fasoli,

Ferrari, Foletti, Gervasoni, Lafranchi,

Latti, Luminati, Mazza, Milesi, Minotti,

Muschialli, Pedrotti, Pozzi, Rapacioli, Re-

becchi, Righetti, Rodini, Rosetti, Sartori, Tinetti, Tonazini...

Forgiveness is asked for any error in spelling or omissions. In the early 1870's many were baptised by Fr Nicholas

Bassetto while many others were baptised by Irish priests!!

Welcome to St Peter's Mass today

Michele Green and Steve Carr

from the Swiss Italian Festa Committee.

St Augustine's Women's Morning Cuppa

The monthly cuppa will be held at Meg's

Café on Thursday November 2nd at 10.30am all women of St Augustine's

Parish community are invited to come together for this monthly cuppa and chat.

Synod on Synodality in Rome

The Catholic Church must continue discerning its future by listening to everyone, starting with the poorest and excluded, after the assembly of the Synod of Bishops closes its first session, participants said in a letter addressed to the "People God" concluding the first Assembly of the Synod

Caritas Australia's Gaza Crisis Appeal

An estimated 1 million people have been displaced in Gaza with immediate food, shelter, health and psychosocial needs. "This is a period of incredible turmoil and sadness. The escalation of violence has only exacerbated needs for the people in Gaza and West Bank, who already live in dire conditions. We are working with our partners on the ground to provide comprehensive and critical support to over 17,000 families affected by this devastating conflict." Sally Thomas, Humanitarian Lead, Caritas Australia. With your support, there will be aid to help partners on the ground to assist people displaced and affected by the current conflict.
