PRAYER FOR PEACE: During this time of enormous conflict and violence in the Holy Land, we join with people throughout the world praying for peace. Last Sunday, Pope Francis urged combatants to lay down their arms and stop the attacks on both sides. At the end of his audience, he said he was following the violence “with apprehension and sorrow” and urged Catholics to take up the rosary to pray through the intercession of Mary “for the gift of peace for the many countries of the world marked by war and conflict”. We pray with one another:

Lord Jesus Christ, as the Holy Land is once again struck by violence, hatred and death, look with mercy upon the land that was your earthly home. Receive those who have died into your presence, comfort those who mourn, are wounded or forced to flee. Be close to all who are full of fear or despair. You are our peace and the light of the nations, put an end to the spiral of terror and suffering in the Holy Land and the Middle East. Let peace and justice flourish at the holy sites. You are our refuge. Let the people be safe in your Love. Have mercy on us and our time. Amen.

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER VOICE

REFERENDUM: Now that our votes have been cast and are being counted, we pray that, whatever the result, this will bring about unity rather than division, acceptance rather than disagreement and that together we will strive to work for the good of all people of our nation.

“O God, powerful and gentle, you love this southern land and all its people, old and new. As the Cross shines in our heavens so may Christ bring light to our nation. As the waves encircle our shores so may your mercy enfold us all. May your blessings flow upon us as a stream in the desert, and may your spirit prompt us to use our gifts for the good of all.”

INTERCESSIONS: 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time 15 Oct 2023

Priest: As God's people, let's pray as one for the needs of the world.

Reader: That peaceful and just solutions may be quickly found for those caught up in conflict and violence in Ukraine, the Middle East and elsewhere in our world.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That, in the words of the prophet Isaiah, God will enable warring nations to beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks so that instruments of war become the means for bringing peace.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That the result of our Referendum on an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Voice to Parliament will unite rather than divide and be the beginning of a better way forward.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That gathering around the Lord's table will help us better appreciate that there's a place for all in God's kingdom.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That those who have died recently and whose anniversaries are at this time will feast at the Lord's eternal banquet:

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Priest: For Mary's intercession, we pray: Hail Mary ...

Priest: Generous God, hear the prayers of your people and help us to prepare for the coming of your kingdom where we will dwell in your house and dine with one another around your table forever and ever.

All: Amen.
