ABSTAINING FROM MEAT:

Catholics used to go without meat on Ash Wednesday and every Friday of the year. Pope Paul VI issued a letter making it clear that eating meat on one Friday was not a grave sin and in Australia our bishops legislated that we do without meat on two days only each year – Ash Wednesday & Good Friday. That is still the case. Personally, I (Patrick J Flanagan) think it was a pity we abandoned the old practice. Among other things, it was an act of solidarity, a badge saying 'We are Catholics', and that was no bad thing.

TERRY RANGER: Terry is a great help to those who have seen him in the many years he's been coming to our Parish. Call Terry on 5331 4032 to book a time for a chat about anything when he's here this Friday 16th Feb.
