Daylesford Parish Get Together

An amazing turnout of 15 people, for the first Daylesford get together last Monday at Koukla Café. The food was delicious, the company delightful, and the atmosphere simply wonderful.

Many laughs and stories were shared. Thanks to the Parish Pastoral Council for the suggestion, especially Jude and Millie for organizing it.

This will be an ongoing event, on the 2nd Monday of each month 6pm at Koukla Café. The next date will be October 14th.

Please RSVP to Jude if you wish to attend.

Fr Marcello on leave

Fr Marcello will be taking a well deserved break from Monday 16th September to Friday 11th October. He will be joining Fr Justin, Principals and staff from the Diocese of Ballarat Catholic Education. They will be going on a Spiritual Heritage Pilgrimage to Ireland, celebrating the 150 years of the Diocese of Ballarat.

Some of the highlights include a visit to the first house of Mercy built by Catherine McAuley, the birthplace of Blessed Edmund Rice, Glenstal Abbey, and Croagh Patrick, where St Patrick spent 40 days and nights fasting on the summit.

We wish Fr Marcello and the rest of the pilgrims a safe and blessed trip.

We welcome Fr Eugene McKinnon who will be celebrating our Masses while Fr Marcello is away.
