We pray for Jill Morse who died this week and those whose anniversaries include:

Kel Nitschke, Angela Capuano, Elizabeth Ellen Maddison, Marion Slater, Jim Rinaldi, Mary Davis, Josef Seirer and Joan Plucke.

WELCOME BISHOP PAUL BIRD: We welcome Bishop Paul to our parish this weekend as he visits every parish in our diocese' 150th anniversary year. We give thanks for his twelve years leadership of our diocese and pray for him as he awaits the appointment of his successor, now he's reached the mandatory retirement age for bishops of 75, that he may continue to be blessed with many more years of good health and fine ministry.

JILL MORSE 3/1/1942 - 24/9/2024: We reluctantly farewell a greatly loved, valued and highly committed member of our parish. Our parish secretary for many years till having to relinquish this due to ill health early last year, Jill was a bright, enthusiastic presence at Maryborough and Dunolly, on our parish council and finance committee and in countless other ways attending to both everyday things and being there for others in times of special need. Her strong, determined character kept her cancer at bay for much longer than expected and ensured she was able to have her final overseas adventure with her sister Trish last year. Condolences to Jill's family and many friends, including her children Michael, Raeleen, Jacqui and Chrissy and her grand and great grandchildren as we prepare for her Funeral Mass at 11.00am Tuesday in St Augustine's Church as was her beloved husband Gary in 2008. Followed by a private cremation.

FR JOHN'S HIP SURGERY: Please pray for me as I prepare for my hip replacement on Thursday in Ballarat. As Flags will be away, there will need to be Assemblies instead of Mass at Maryborough and Avoca next weekend and also on weekdays. Fr Eugene McKinnon will be with us for our weekend Masses on 12/13 October.
