We welcome to St Peter's Mass today The Veneto Club Choir, who be singing in Italian, Michele Green, and Steve Carr from the Swiss Italian Festa Committee

The very first entry into the Daylesford Parish Baptism register was March 23rd 1862, for the baptism of Petro Aloyizi Tomassini, son of Eugenio Tomassini and Magdalena Gacometti of Stony Creek.

Many Swiss Italian family names appear in each of the Parish sacramental registers:
Bolla, Bonavia, Bonetti, Bravo, Caligari, Casarotti, Comelli, DeCarlo, Fasoli, Ferrari, Foletti, Gervasoni, Lafranchi, Latti, Luminati, Mazza, Milesi, Minotti, Muschialli, Pedrotti, Pozzi, Rapacioli, Rebecchi, Righetti, Rodini, Rosetti, Sartori, Tinetti, Tonazini.

We are fortunate to have many family members of the original descendants as members of our parish, of which some are participating in our Mass today.

St. Michael's Primary School, founded by the Presentation Sisters as Holy Cross College in 1892, has a proud history of delivering quality education for children living in Daylesford and surrounding areas. For many years, families associated with St. Michael's have worked hard to organise a school fete as a fundraising initiative and community event. This year they will celebrate 30 years at the Smith Street Site. They look forward to getting in touch with past students and families, to share their stories and memories. Come along Sunday November 10 for a day of family fun and an opportunity to reflect upon the school's rich history.
